

Hello boys and girls

BY ESTHER SAUNDERS

Dear boys and girls,

Have you ever noticed how different people are? God made many different types of people all around the world, with different cultures and different lifestyles. Some are tall. Some are short. Some eat different foods. Some wear different clothes. Some talk different languages. Some act differently. Some have different colour skin. Even Lyric and I look very different from each other – even though we both have our daddy's smile. People all around the world are all different and unique in their own special way. That's how the good Lord made us. But we all have one very important thing in common though; God loves us all equally and we are called to be part of His family.

Recently Lyric and I learnt a new song at church called My God is good O. It's a song all the way from West Africa and has many different languages (English, Tshiluba, Swahili and Zulu) in it. It is a lot of fun to sing. Do you know any Christian songs in any other languages? We want to praise the Lord in as many languages as we possibly can.

Jesus died for people everywhere, those in different countries, who speak different languages and come from different tribes. Jesus loved them all and in the same way He wants us to love everyone too. Next time you see someone different, don't be afraid, show them that you too are a Christian full of God's love.

Prayer :

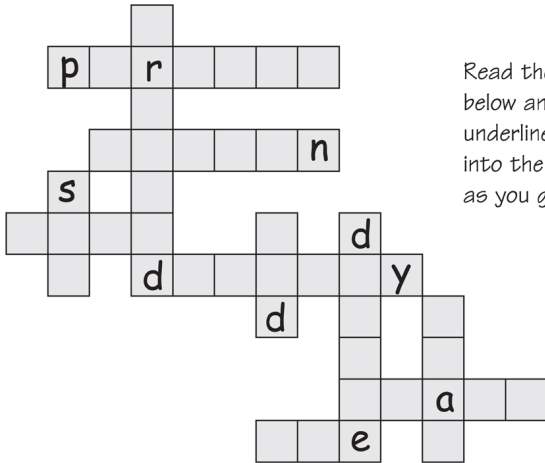

Dear Lord,
Help us to understand and follow your teachings you give us in the Bible. Help us to do our best in everything we do and to serve you with all our hearts. Amen

The first sin

Read Genesis 2:15-17, Genesis 3:1-7

Read the passage below and fit the underlined words into the crossword as you go.

God created man and put him in a beautiful garden called Eden. The first man's name was Adam. God then created a wife for Adam, and Adam called her Eve.

Adam and Eve were created perfect, without sin. God gave Adam and Eve the ability to make choices; they could think about things and decide what they wanted to do.

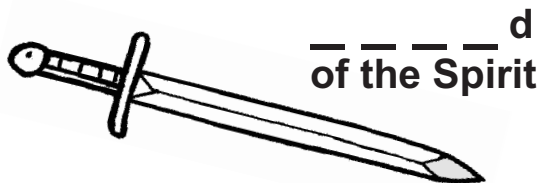

Sadly, Adam and Eve chose to disobey God. They did something that God had told them not to do. Because they disobeyed God, sin and death came into the world.

But because God loves us, He sent His Son Jesus to earth to show us His love and to save us from sin.
