From the Editor

During the month of December many magazines will feature Jesus Christ on their covers, simply because of Christmas. I would like to propose that perhaps we should feature Jesus precisely because He has nothing to do with Christmas? It really is quite irrelevant whether or not Jesus actually celebrates a birthday in this month. Besides, how does the One who has no beginning or end celebrate a date on which everything "started?" I suppose the same goes for you and me: we celebrate the day the doctor slapped us on the behind, when our real birthday was when egg and sperm collided in a Divinely inspired moment of "birth!"

No, the real reason that Jesus Christ should be featured is because I believe that everything started with Him, continues with Him, in Him and through Him. Ok, ok, I sense the philosophers and debaters congregating with a wild look in their eyes... with... in... through?

Indeed!

There is no other person more famous than Jesus. In our modern society (with its claim of unheard-of-before tolerance and human rights) no other person is more ridiculed than Jesus Christ. No other person can claim the honour of being both swearword and receiving honoured praise. No other person is more loved... or hated, depending on your perspective. Jesus Christ is the ultimate rebel, non-conformist and troublemaker ever to walk the face of the earth. Yet He is the supreme peacemaker, graciousness personified and love divine. Perhaps this is why He is so controversial: He cannot be easily boxed into a comfortable niche. He simply defies definition.

So I reckon Jesus is the perfect cover personality, when in a month where a world goes mad and gets rich on His fame, certain fraternities celebrate His coming to earth with songs and praise. Despite our belief in calendar days and the accuracy of historians, we can depend on the focus of His attention: to love us without reserve. His life exemplifies that one truth – that we are so important in His eyes that He will move heaven and earth to satisfy our hunger for acceptance and love.

And so I am reminded that heaven came to earth, that the ugliness of a cross became the beauty of a soul, that a Lamb can also be a Lion, and a baby a King. So I raise my voice with a great portion of humanity and say: Happy Birthday!

Prophetic Faith

By André and Jenny Roebert

From the very beginning of time the God of all creation caused a space of non-existence to become a place of life and destiny. He took what was without shape or form and one word at a time, created a perfect universe and all it would encompass. You are the product of the words you speak daily. Since the moment time itself was established until time will come to an end, the same principle of creation is set into motion. A word is spoken and a thing is established, only this time, the words that bring forth substance are from the mouths God's chosen creation. Every man paves his own destiny, good or bad, fruitful or fruitless by the words he speaks.

You and I may be at a point in our lives where we feel dissatisfaction concerning the path or direction our lives may have taken, or may seem to be heading in the future. We blame circumstances, misfortune, other people's actions or attitudes, even God Himself for the position we find ourselves in today. The truth is, today we are the product of the words we spoke yesterday and tomorrow we will be exactly what we speak today.

A Mystery of Great Price...

I am about to share a mystery of great price with you. It is a valuable key that will unlock Divine wisdom and will set your life on a different course, should you choose to apply it. It is the mystery hidden for you by your Creator since the start of time. If you are tired of gambling through life, being at the mercy of circumstances and of others, this message is for you. Now is the time to change your destiny, take charge of your future and embark on the journey of a lifetime.

The Spoken Word of God

To fully understand this well-kept secret, we will go straight to the Source of creation itself: the spoken word of God. In Hebrews 11:3 we are reminded that God's words brought the worlds into being. The term "word" is taken from the Greek word rhema, which describes something that is spoken clearly and vividly in unmistakable terms and undeniable language. The word rhema carries the idea of a quickened word. Now an example of this quickened word of God is what rises up within our spirits and hearts when we read a portion of scripture that just seems to jump out at us. Even though we may have read that verse many times before, it suddenly has a depth of meaning and value to us as never before.

For the first time, that scripture brings such a clear understanding to us and it feels as though the inside of us has lit up and a thrill of excitement begins to bubble up within us! We call this a revelation! The word of God has now passed from being just good words written in a book to your own personal revelation! God's quickened word spoken from the Holy Spirit within you has highlighted and confirmed the written word of God you are reading. In fact what you have just experienced is the birthing of a very powerful force inside of you called faith!

Don't Repeat it, Believe It!

Hebrews 10:23 urges us to hold fast to the profession of our faith! "Profession" comes from the Greek word homologia, which means "to say the same thing." To make this a little dearer, let's consider a writer. When an author writes an article, his thoughts, convictions and beliefs are printed on paper. If you read his book and agree with what is written, being his words, then you are actually agreeing with the author himself, because those words represent what he thinks and believes. You may, in fact, agree so much with the writings that you take the author's viewpoint and began to hold it as your own conviction and before long you and the author are aligned in your thinking and believing.

The word 'profession' is not the picture of someone who simply repeats what someone else has said; rather it is an Individual who has gotten the Word of God into his head and has come into agreement and alignment with what God says. This person sees what he has read as God sees it, hears it, and feels it. He has the same conviction, conceding the words he has read as God does! And so, when the believer begins to confess or profess the word of God he has read, it is powerful because it comes from a deep place of conviction inside his heart

Words that are spoken from the conviction of the heart and are in line with God's heart are words of faith! The person has in fact spoken out the revelation that has come from the quickened word of God within him that is in total alignment with the written word he has read! The conviction of God has become the conviction of man and when that conviction is spoken out, it causes those words to take on creative form and shape and what was not seen, becomes visible! That which was hoped for now has substance! Because words that come from the conviction of the heart and are in line with the conviction of God's heart are words of faith! It is these very words that have the power to create.

Just as God's words created the universe, your words of faith create the world you choose to live in! That which was hoped for now has substance - prophetic faith is what we are called to live by, a faith that has the power to speak and create the future! Nothing happens in the kingdom of God unless something is said. And the promises of prosperity, success, divine health and a life full and well worth living is only going to become yours when you align your thoughts, convictions and beliefs with God's word. And when you speak out those powerful convictions you become the prophet of your own life! You activate the kind of faith that paves the future. 📌

A Spirit Filled Christmas

By André and Jenny Roebert

It's Christmas, the most wonderful time of the year! While we deck the halls and dress the trees and decorate with all things jolly, to get into the spirit of Christmas; let's make a special effort to pay attention to the Spirit of God, on the inside of us! The Bible describes Him as a precious treasure living within us. Being filled with the Spirit of God is the most wonderful gift of all and when we understand how to stay vitally connected to His voice of wisdom and truth, our lives will overflow with His supernatural purpose, peace and joy!

As born again, children of God, we have the most valuable gift of life, dwelling within us. Unless we choose to train our hearts and minds to become sensitive to His voice, we can go through our lives being dictated to by circumstances, depending on our own strength and wisdom.

I once read an article Gloria Copeland wrote, explaining the process of becoming sensitive to the Spirit of God inside of us. She used the analogy of tuning in to a radio station.

When we want to listen to a particular radio station, all we need to do is turn a dial and tune in to that station. You see, that station is constantly transmitting its frequency but we have to tune into the frequency to hear it clearly. Just the same, the Holy Spirit is alive on the inside of us, constantly speaking and guiding us. We just need to know how to fine tune our hearing to His voice. We tune in and out all the time, depending on what we give our attention to.

Now, there are many different ways to fine tune our spirits to hear the Spirit of God, however, one of the fastest and most effective methods is to pray in tongues. 1 Corinthians 14:2 says, "For one who speaks in an [unknown] tongue speaks not to men but to God, for no one understands or catches his meaning, because in the [Holy] Spirit he utters secret truths and hidden things [not obvious to the understanding]."

When we pray in tongues, we are not praying according to our own thoughts or understanding, we are praying the Spirit of God's! Now that truth alone makes my spirit leap with excitement! You see, the more you learn about the nature and character of God, you realise how absolutely awesome He is. Besides being all powerful, He is full of love and goodness and hope. He is kind, gentle, merciful and compassionate. And He is for us! He loves spending time with us because He delights in us. He really is interested in every intimate detail of our lives. I have to say, that has always touched my heart about our God. The way I literally feel His smile and unconditional love for me, every time I direct my thoughts to Him.

When we pray in tongues, we silence every other thought or frequency in our minds and spirits that would bring doubt and fear. It's like plugging into a supernatural power source that floods us with hope and wisdom and strength. That's because we are directly and vitally connected to the Spirit of God Himself!

There is nothing that satisfies our spirits and souls more, than that. It's because praying in tongues is connecting with the Spirit of God, on His terms. Remember that His ways and thoughts are not ours, they are far superior because He is all knowing and all powerful. So whatever we need at the time we tune into His Spirit, is exactly what He fills us with. Sometimes it's so light and refreshing, like a gentle breeze, brushing over our spirits, assuring us of His love and faithfulness. Other times it can be a clear thought that is spontaneously dropped into our minds that carries a powerful sense of urgency, filled with wisdom and purpose. There is no limit to how the Spirit of God makes Himself known to us as He deposits His truth inside of us. However, you can be certain that He will never bring fear or hopelessness. He is not the spirit of fear, He is love and from the moment we surrendered our lives to Him, He gave us His Spirit of love, power and a sound mind! So let's not spend the rest of our days ignoring that supernatural power house that lives inside of us! Let's choose to constantly tune into Him, drawing from His Spirit as our vital necessity.

Can you imagine the blessing you will be to those around you this Christmas when you are constantly being filled with that powerful force of love that never fails, filling every part of your life and then flowing into the lives of others?

Let's make this a Christmas like no other, a Christmas filled with the Spirit of God Himself! 📌

The Secrets to Answered

Prayer

BY JOYCE MEYER

When you pray, do you have a vague feeling that something is lacking... that there isn't any power in your prayers? Do you struggle with doubt or fear, or simply lack confidence that God even hears you at all?

I used to have feelings like this and would think, "Maybe I didn't say the right thing, or pray long enough, or my words weren't eloquent enough." It was so frustrating because I didn't want to waste time, wondering if it was doing any good. After I pray, I want to know that God is working and my prayers make a difference.

It's easy to complicate our relationship with God and think we have to do certain things a certain way for them to be effective. But I've discovered that powerful, life-changing, dynamic prayer is amazingly simple!

TWO THINGS WE MUST DO

It's vitally important for us to have faith in God when we pray. Hebrews 11:6 (AMPC) says, "Without faith it is impossible to please and be satisfactory to Him. For whoever would come near to God must [necessarily] believe that God exists and that He is the rewarder of those who earnestly and diligently seek Him [out]."

Ask yourself, "Do I believe God hears me, that He cares about me and wants to be involved in every area of my life?" If we don't really believe God loves us and wants to help us, we will struggle to have faith in Him. That's why knowing and experiencing the love of God is critical to developing a powerful prayer life.

It's also important that we approach God with sincere hearts. James 5:16 (AMPC) says, "...The earnest (heartfelt, continued) prayer of a righteous man makes tremendous power available [dynamic in its working]." A sincere heart is focused on God, trusting that He hears you and will answer. It doesn't mean you have to cry or yell to pray with sincerity; it's all about the attitude of your heart toward God.

YOU HAVE TO ASK

It's exciting to get the revelation that God loves us, cares for us and wants to help us. But we have a part to do in getting the things God has for us—we have to ask. James 4:2 (AMPC) says, "...You do not have, because you do not ask."

Now, it's important to understand that we have to ask for God's will to be done, not just for the things we think we want or should have apart from Him. James 4:1 tells us that striving to get what we want based on our carnal or fleshly desires leads to "strife (discord and feuds)...conflicts (quarrels and fightings)." This causes us to be jealous, covet what others have and become angry when we can't "obtain [the gratification, the contentment, and the happiness] we are seeking (James 4:2)."

These verses show us what causes problems in people's lives. We think we're unhappy because we don't have all the stuff that we want. But the reality is only God can give us what we're longing for in our hearts. He alone is the source of righteousness, peace and joy (Romans 14:17). And we will never enjoy life until we learn to abide in Him and trust Him to do what's best for us.

THE KEY TO PRAYING FOR GOD'S WILL

If you're not sure whether you're asking for God's will in your life (and we all go through times like this), then you need to take time to just abide in Christ. In John 15:7 (AMPC), Jesus says, "If you live in Me [abide vitally united to Me] and My words remain in you and continue to live in your hearts, ask whatever you will, and it shall be done for you."

To abide means to live, dwell and remain; it's not just spending time with God on Sunday morning and then going through your week doing what you want apart from Him. God wants to do life with us Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday too! As we spend time studying His Word, meditating on the Word, communicating with Him through prayer, and asking Him to fulfill His plans for us, we will know His will in our hearts.

It's an amazing privilege to be able to talk to God! I want to encourage you to come to Him with humility and ask Him for the desires that are in your heart. Tell Him, "Lord, I don't want anything You don't want me to have. So if this is not Your will, don't give it to Me. I'm trusting You and want You to be in control of my life." Pray about everything that's on your heart and keep it simple. Remember, prayer is simply talking to God, and you can pray anytime, anywhere, all day long...and He will answer. 📌

Prayer is a wonderful privilege, not an obligation, in our relationship with God.

GOD RESTORES

Jeremiah 31:18 "Restore me, and I will return, for You are the Lord my God." Our God is in the restoration business. Indeed our God is a restorer. I looked up the Oxford dictionary to find the meaning of the word restore and it is quite simply: - "to give something stolen, or removed, back to the original owner."

If we think about it that is exactly what God does for you and I. He restores that which the moth and Cankerworm have destroyed. Restoration is the nature of God. CS Lewis the great Christian modern-day writer said, "If I find in myself a desire which no experience in this world can satisfy...I was made for another world." We are not of this world, there is an insatiable emptiness and hunger in our souls that nothing can fill, but the love of God. It is only hope in Jesus Christ that can restore that emptiness. Like most of us we lament the mistakes that we have made, all of us, if we had to relive our lives again we would definitely not make the same mistakes we made in the past. I have spoken to many people who are lamenting because of their past. Maybe they have been through a divorce, maybe they have done something illegitimately, maybe they have been to prison, maybe they have lost their job position because of dishonesty and they are lamenting their situation. Is there any hope left for me? That's the question. Well the answer is good news, the Lord specialises in taking failures and turning them inside out and making them successes.

I remember distinctly as a brand-new Christian almost 40 years ago now, listening to a speaker from America who said in his broad American accent, "You will never make a racehorse out of a donkey." Even as a new believer that did not gel in my heart because I see myself as very much a donkey. In fact as an early preacher they use to give me the title of Bongol, which is a Zulu word for a donkey. I actually was honoured by that title because it was a Bongol (donkey) that carried the Master into Jerusalem, and it was a donkey that carried Mary and the baby Jesus into Egypt to escape from the wrath of King Herod.

My God specialises actually in taking donkeys and making them into Durban July racehorse winners. You might ask the question why? It's because He does not and will not share His glory with any man. Anything good that we do in our lives literally magnifies the name of our Heavenly Father, simply because people know that we in our carnal strength, in our fallen state, could never achieve the heights and the prizes that we have received through Christ.

So God is a restorer and we can count on God's promises over our lives. As I sit here writing this column I get quite emotional when I think of how the Lord took me out of the bottomless pit, just like He did with King David and seated me on a rock and restored me. The things that He has done in my life would never have been possible if I had not met Him as my Lord and Saviour.

I want to encourage you today to turn back to the Restorer and let Him renew your life. I love the old story, that God has a bad memory because once He forgives, He forgets and He never brings up the past. So confess your sins (1 John 1:9) and move on in faith and let God make you a champion racehorse for Him.

God bless

PHIL COOKE

Just when you thought you had protected your family from pornography on the computer, there's another threat that's potentially even more significant. The new porn highway that drives right into your family home is available via your mobile devices. Sure you can filter search engine results there as well, but what I believe are much bigger threats are social media apps like Twitter, Instagram, and Pinterest.

While some apps like Instagram say they block "inappropriate" posts, apparently they have a very wide view of what inappropriate is for most people. Plus, in the age of the "selfie" thousands of young women are essentially turning Instagram into a personal pin-up gallery and filling their page with provocative photographs. In essence, they're treating it like a demo reel for voyeurs.

There's remarkably little information online about how to restrict porn on mobile devices – particularly inside apps. But I found this post (<http://www.technojoyous.com/2015/08/how-to-block-porn-on-your-phone-android-iphone.html>) – copied in below, that has detailed info for both Apple IOS and Android devices. Take the time to find your device, and make the changes.

The great deception is that with apps like Instagram, when you hit the "Search" tab, then scroll down to their suggestions, you can't control what they "suggest." Especially if you have children in the house who occasionally use your devices, or have devices of their own, this is an absolutely critical issue. Granted, it's one more thing that we in a digital generation have to think about that never crossed our parents or grandparents minds.

How to block porn on android and iPhone using settings and apps?

NEVIL PATEL 8/11/2015 HOME , TIPS-MOBILE , TIPS-TRICKS
Cell phone has become a medium to browse offensive contents through the internet. The key reason behind this deed is the privacy measures that smart phones provide to users which are very much deficient in computers and laptops. Similarly, adult contents have become a major interest for mobile phone users since people can browse such contents easily and conveniently with higher privacy. But this can turn out harmful for you as well as your kids or other members. You cannot always keep a track of who uses your mobile phone and who does not. For instance, you placed your phone on the table and went out for some time, and your teen might take the advantage of browsing offensive content for that specific time.

You'd never know what he did or if anyone used your phone because you will casually lift it up and start using again without having any trace. So it is very necessary to secure your phone and prevent others from browsing adult contents in it. Often people have questioned me "How do I block porn contents in my mobile?" In this article, I will shed some light on Android porn blocker apps, as well as for iPhones.

How to block adult content or websites on your phone?

The best way to block porn on your Android or iOS devices is to use a third party application that prohibits any adult content and websites to open on your phone. Alternatively, if your phone provides parental controls to prevent opening such websites then you can also control your phone through that feature. This will make your phone much secure and avert your kids from browsing adult contents.

BEST R&B ALBUM
NOMINEE CROWN

SIFANISO

Christmas with Sifaniso

Sifaniso is a South African born recording artist, residing in Australia, whose sound is a dynamic mix of soul, R&B and gospel. It came as no surprise that the album has not even hit store yet and already it was nominated best R&B Album by the Crown Gospel Awards. Certainly exciting times. Sifaniso's debut album, Akehluleki, was nationally released and distributed in April 2010 and continues to be sold in retail outlets across South Africa. Sifaniso's album won two Crown Gospel Awards and upon receiving the awards, Sifaniso was approached by Universal Music to be signed on as a songwriter for publishing.

The widely acclaimed album continues to receive national media airplay on popular radio stations in South Africa. His music video was regarded as one of the top played music videos of that year. In 2009, he co-created a musical play depicting the history of South Africa which toured Australia. The play received national media exposure on Channel 9, The Age and The Herald Sun. Sifaniso helped co-write a Zulu/English collaboration with Aussie rock band Evermore on a track called 'Lay your Weapons down.' Since then, Sifaniso has utilized his skills in big productions at home. This includes the Christmas Spectacular at Bridge Church in Richmond which is 4 performances for 5000+ people since 2013.

Sifaniso's long awaited Christmas album, simply called CHRISTMAS WITH SIFANISO, is finally here. He has taken traditional hits and put his own groove and twist on them. The genres range from jazz to soul to gospel to pop to rock....basically anything you can think of, yet it all works in perfect harmony. The single "Christmas Time" has a modern pop feel mixed with a warm sense of the traditional sounds of Christmas, something that the whole family can enjoy. A music video was also produced. "Christmas is about bringing families together, celebrating with loved ones and I wanted to capture my own version of that through this album." On the question of why he recorded a CHRISTMAS album, Sifaniso had the following to say: "I felt that there was a gap especially in the South African industry that needed to be bridged, none or not that many artists were doing a Christmas Album. I therefore felt it will be good to focus on the season and capture moments that are precious to most people. Christmas is a time of joy and happiness. It doesn't matter what obstacles families or people might have faced. Family members that have had issues with each other find it in their hearts to forgive and move on. Relatives or family members who have been apart due to a number of reasons make their way back home or fly across the world to be with their loved ones. There are also those couples or families who can't be with their loved ones because of certain reasons or circumstances like loss, work or distance."

In the album there are songs that speaks to that. For some of us who are Christians, this day goes beyond the gifts or presents but remind us of the ultimate gift that God the father gave us, Christ Jesus the ultimate display of His love to humankind. I thought on all of this when i made my song selection of the covers, songs that mean the most to me and help me capture and express all these moments. I also arranged them in a way that I hear them in my head, that though they've been sung before, they might have a touch of my interpretation.

I also wrote some new songs some that are Christmas songs and some that are open ended, and one gospel/ worship song. Some of these songs were included so that people can still listen to the album even after the season has passed. This album is intended for all and have a message that goes even beyond Christmas. masterfully produced by Joyous Celebration's Siyanqoba Mthethwa with Musicians also from Joyous Celebration, this is certainly an album that is already drawing the attention of the industry. Sifaniso's vocal capability is evident throughout the album as he renders with great flexibility from ballads to rock, funk and soul. This shows that Sifaniso is not just "another artist" but a wellrounded developed and capable vocalist with an amazing range and vision. 📌

SIFANISO will be touring South Africa during Nov/Dec of 2015.
He is available for telephonic interviews.

DAY 233: Breaking down the old to make way for the new

There are some very interesting engineering developments happening on the top floor of River Park. When you compare the photos from our last update to the most current ones, you will notice that some of the newly erected structures have been taken down again! This is not because of some mistake on the part of the engineers, but rather a better way forward on erecting the roof. The cross beams are very large and have been constructed in smaller segments. This is not only for ease of transport and getting the steel 4 storeys up by crane, but from what we understand also impacts the final structural integrity. The erected segments have come down, and will now be bolted, 3 segments per stretch, before being lifted into place. In the meantime the old roof is fast disappearing and the occasional rain shower serves as a "cooling-down" and "shower" function for the workers! All in all everything is progressing really well and we are getting more excited every day to finally see the new roof in place. River Park will in future truly be a landmark on the East London skyline!

Praise the Lord, the budget needs a mere 8,79% to be fulfilled! This translates to just over R2,6 million. We gratefully praise God for this. The team of Faith Broadcasting Network is extremely privileged to have so many like-minded people at their side and is honoured to call them friends! We praise God for such faithful partners. There are daily calls and emails from people all over the world who are pledging support, both in prayer and finances, for the project. We know that God commands His blessing where there is unity, and so together and united we believe to see the entire renovation completed on time.

God always provides necessary resources when He gives a vision to accomplish much for His Kingdom. Our vision is plain and simple - Go out and train everyone you meet, far and near, in this way of life, marking them by baptism in the threefold name: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Then instruct them in the practice of all I have commanded you (Matthew 28:19-20 MSG). This is the exact mandate of Faith Broadcasting Network and its partners! Thank you again for heeding the voice of Christ and partnering with us to make this commission a reality.

Thank you for your continued support of this vision in prayer and finances - we value your partnership greatly! To give you some practical insight into the timeline of the project, and also to help you pray

Burnout

By Waldo Malan

The end of a year somehow always catches one unprepared. It is not as if we are totally unaware of the progress of the year but rather that when we seriously start preparing for the festivities surrounding our Lord's birthday, we somehow find it hard to believe that December is here yet again. Sometimes it feels like the older one gets the faster a year speeds by.

In the throes of preparing for Christmas celebrations we are sometimes assuaged by times of self-reflecting. Thoughts about what had or hadn't been accomplished sporadically flash through one's mind (well, at least my mind - are there other people like that out there?) This time of introspection and (could I call it self-evaluation), is a positive time to reflect on the missed opportunities and future hopes and goals. I think it is important to reflect like this, not alone but with the Lord.

Sadly, this is also the time of the year where 'burnout' victims increase - these are they that come to the end of all their strength: mental, emotional and physical. The human being (spirit, soul and body) comes to a point where everything collapses and crashes. Of course "burnout" is not restricted to this time of year only, but there is some connection between the end of the year to the end of one's tether. Reflecting upon all this reminded me again of the two sisters who were special friends of Jesus: Mary and Martha. We've often heard and read about them. They have often been the subject of a teaching or sermon. We know that, according to Jesus, Mary chose the "better thing" to do as opposed to Martha. Now Martha did not do a BAD thing as such, what with working herself to the bone in serving the Lord, but she neglected the important thing of "waiting" upon the Lord. In a sense she was waitressing too much and waiting too little. I think that in time Martha would probably have experienced a burnout of some kind!

Thinking about these extraordinary two women made me reflect on another scripture verse found in Paul's letter to the Romans: "However, the Most High does not dwell in houses and temples made with hands..." (Romans 7:48).

The question today is a simple one: are you a candidate for burnout? One of the most important factors that will select you as a prime candidate is when you try to do all things in your own strength. Another is when the quantity of things you do for the Lord outweighs the quality. You can build hundreds of houses and hundreds of churches, you can establish thousands of ministries, but if you neglect your time with the Lord (your time of waiting upon the Lord) you stand a fairly good chance of burning yourself out.

If the Most High does not dwell in houses and temples made with hands, then where does He dwell? God dwells in the praises of His people (Psalm 22:3). If God dwells with us, then we can dwell in HIS HOUSE. If God dwells in us then we are HIS TEMPLE. Let us never forget to set time apart for the One Who deserves all our praise. God is not really interested in how much we do for Him, but rather how much time we spend with Him. Yes, we can talk to God while we are physically labouring, and we talk less to Him when we are mentally labouring. What God really appreciates is when we STOP EVERYTHING for Him - all the work, effort, labour, good intentions, motivations and attitudes - and simply sit at His feet having fellowship.

The cure for burnout is praise. May this thought be with you during this time of festivity and reflection. I also wish you a blessed time from God during this season of celebration and may God's will be fulfilled in every way in the New Year. ✦

Hello boys and girls

BY ESTHER SAUNDERS

Hello boys and girls, I'm so excited that this year is finally coming to an end and we get to enjoy the festive season. Jazz and I have passed our exams and mom and dad are very proud of our results. They have promised to reward us for our hard work with extra special Christmas gifts.

At the beginning of the year mom and dad said that if we work hard at school, do all our chores at home and don't misbehave that they will reward us with extra special gifts at the end of the year. During the mid-year exams I got very sick with the flu and struggled to study and my school marks suffered. I was disappointed in myself but mom encouraged me that I still had time to catch up and do better at the end of the year. I must be honest that I was worried that this small setback would cause my extra special present to disappear and that instead I would be left with something less special.

I really wanted a new bicycle. I've grown a lot taller and I really need a big girl bicycle with strong breaks and large tyres. I ride my bicycle every day, as long as it isn't raining. I knew that if I did everything right that mom and dad would definitely reward me with what I wanted and needed.

Mom reminded me that she is a parent and she takes her example from God the father. The bible tells us that God loved the world so much that He sent Jesus His only Son to die for our sins. The bible teaches us that we should live holy lives and strive to be like Jesus every day in our actions. I don't know about you but I often make mistakes, Jesus was perfect and I'm not a robot. Sometimes Jazz makes me angry or I feel jealous of a friend's toy or I don't do what dad asks immediately. That doesn't mean that my parents stop loving me. That doesn't mean that they take back their promises. In the same way God still sent His Son for me, so that I may have eternal life. All I need to do is confess my sins and ask God for the strength to live according to His word.

Mom says that just like I am confident in her love, so I can be confident in God's love and promises to me. ✠

Dear Lord Jesus, thank You for giving me such a wonderful intelligent mind. Thank You that even when I feel sad, lonely or afraid that I can put my trust in You to help me overcome these feelings. Thank you for giving me a mommy and daddy who are always there to help me cope with life's challenges. Amen

Rick Warren

The most basic question everyone faces in life is Why am I here? What is my purpose? Self-help books suggest that people should look within, at their own desires and dreams, but Rick Warren says the starting place must be with God and his eternal purposes for each life. Real meaning and significance comes from understanding and fulfilling God's purposes for putting us on earth.

The Purpose-Driven Life takes the groundbreaking message of the award-winning Purpose-Driven Church and goes deeper, applying it to the lifestyle of individual Christians. This book helps readers understand God's incredible plan for their lives. Warren enables them to see the big picture of what life is all about and begin to live the life God created them to live.

The Purpose-Driven Life is a manifesto for Christian living in the 21st century...a lifestyle based on eternal purposes, not cultural values. Using biblical stories and letting the Bible speak for itself, Warren clearly explains God's five purposes for each of us.

My First Hands-On Bible is the pre-schooler version of the popular Hands-On Bible, which has sold over a half million copies. Jesus taught with hands-on lessons and illustrations; My First Hands-On Bible uses the same experience-based learning to communicate God's Word in an active, understandable way.

My First Hands-On Bible is a fun and simple yet meaningful way to engage preschool, pre-K, and K children (ages 3-6) with the Bible while helping them build a solid faith foundation. Each lesson focuses on a specific Bible point through a variety of activities in order to reinforce and help young children remember the stories and lessons. Using common household items, you can help your children have a "hands-on" learning experience while engaging them in 85 key stories from the Bible. My First Hands-On Bible doesn't just retell the Bible stories; it also includes actual Scripture from the easy-to-understand and easy-to-read Holy Bible, New Living Translation. ## WOMEN'S WEDNESDAYS

HEALING YOUR SOUL WITH KATIE SOUZA 19:30-20:00

Katie didn't always walk in the presence and power of God. In fact, for many years she lived a violent and drug-addicted life. Katie started experimenting with drugs as a teenager – then when her media career took off, her drug use escalated. Katie worked as a model and actress, but drugs caused her to lose job after job, so she turned further to crime to support herself. Katie's life consisted of drugs, clandestine laboratories, stolen vehicles, high speed chases, gun shootouts, and many arrests. By the time she was arrested by the Federal Marshalls in February of 1999, she was at the end of her rope. Charged with manufacturing, conspiracy and gun possession, Katie was sentenced to twelve and a half years in a federal prison.

The pressures of her circumstances finally drove her home into the arms of God. Immediately upon her arrest, the Holy Spirit gave Katie a hunger for the Word. Within a short time, she started a Bible study within her facility. Then one night, God gave Katie a new release date. Six months later, His word came to pass and miraculously, seven years were taken off of her sentence!

If there was ever a time a generation needed revival, it is now, and there is a new wave of ministries being birthed out of revival that is about to sweep the earth. These are the true revivalists that God is raising up to proclaim the pure Gospel of Jesus Christ to their generation with signs and wonders following - men and women who are not satisfied with the status quo of religion and tradition, but who will run with God's fire.

We want to invite you to join an army of men and women, young and old, who are ready to let their lives count for eternity - people who want to be used of God by the power of His Spirit to make an eternal impact on their generation.

Some of the subjects you'll experience: Faith, Prayer, Leadership in Ministry, Bible Doctrines, Worship Lifestyle, Revival Studies, Gifts of Ministry of Helps, Stewardship, Excellence in Ministry, Understanding your Potential, The Name of Jesus, Soul Winning, Mission Trips & many more.
