FROM THE EDITOR

Waldo Malan

We live in an age of overt political correctness where societies have become the breeding ground of opinion. The extremities of being politically correct has seen 'man' and 'woman' become 'person', and has also seen the rise of very opinionated human rights activists.

At a basic, level human rights and the ensuing freedom granted to all people through its proper application is a great tool to restore human dignity and pride. Fact remains, however, that the issue of human rights is open to abuse when viewed in the context of a society that has become permissive for the sake of political correctness.

It has been said that we live in an information era, and that is certainly true. The challenge our children face today is not to get information but rather to attain the skills necessary to process that information. Google any topic of your choice and you will have millions of possibilities, answers and proposed solution in the space of a second or two (longer processing is necessary for dial-up users!) To get the information is relatively easy, but the process is rather more complex.

I'd like to draw a simple analogy between an internet search and human rights. There are as many opinions as there are people on earth; each of these voices have a right to be heard regardless of whether that voice is speaking the truth or a lie. In a context of political correctness no single voice may be ignored as this would constitute an infringement on that person's rights.

Here's my opinion for the record: without some set of absolute standards, ethics and morals, the population of earth will have a problem! While it is my human right to protect my children from what I consider to be detrimental to them, a paedophile's view on his or her rights to my children would differ. While a politician may consider it a right to receive a commission for certain services rendered to the public, the justice system may find it within their rights to prosecute the same politician for fraud.

The debates ensuing from human rights, political correctness, freedom and bondage will rage on long after you and I have departed earth! Perhaps since it seems to be a human tendency to complicate matters, Jesus Christ summarized, simplified and lay to rest all debate in this regard. He gave us advice, that should we choose to follow it, many politicians, activists and terrorists would be without a job! The advice? Treat all other people in the same manner you wish to be treated.

BEING AN ADVOCATE OF HIS GOODNESS

André & Jenny Roebert

The basis of us believing in God's goodness should never be in what we see around us, it has to be deeper and more concrete than that. With our spirits filled with the Holy Spirit, and our minds constantly renewed to the Word of God, we find a solid, sure foundation of what we know Him to be. As we put truly knowing the character of God as our first priority, we will see His goodness played out in our lives, and even when we walk in the shadow of the mountains we face, our trust and confidence in Who He is to us, never wavers. That's because we have learnt that our trust is not in what we see, but in what we don't see, yet know to be true. Just the same, we have an earnest expectation that no matter the circumstance, His Word is true and will always triumph. Whatever He has promised, He will do. Isaiah 64:4 says, "For from of old no one has heard nor perceived by the ear, nor has the eye seen a God besides You, Who works and shows Himself active on behalf of him who [earnestly] waits for Him."

HIS WORD IS TRUE AND WILL ALWAYS TRIUMPH

Of course, we could never, by our own limited understanding, do the full truth justice. We can, however, briefly skim across the pages of the Word, and summarize what it reveals when it comes to the question of God's goodness in an evil world. Our intention is to stir in you a hunger to dig deeper into God's Word, by His Spirit, in your own time, to find the truth that is hidden for you. And when you find it - and you will - you will find it to be a treasure so precious and liberating, because you will discover a perspective that is beyond what you perceive in the natural.

The truth of the matter is, we live in a fallen world that has been suffering under the curse of sin (Genesis 3:17-19; John 8:24). This world is under the rule of the evil tyrant, the devil (1 John 5:19), and He has been relentless in his efforts to destroy all that is good on the face of the earth. The sad reality, is that he was given the authority to lord over the earth and the kingdoms of this world by man himself. This happened when Adam, the first man, was deceived to exchange the dominion and authority he was given by God, for a lie. He was meant to rule and reign on this earth, to multiply and be productive in a world that was subject to his authority and an earth that would willingly yield to his will. It was mankind, not God, that threw it all away by choosing to question the authenticity of God's good character (Genesis 3; Romans 5:12-15; Luke 4:5-6). Adam and Eve placed God's goodness on trial and judged it, and acted upon that judgement by deliberately rejecting the truth they knew in their hearts about Him. Does this sound familiar? Is it possible, that even after the second Adam (Jesus), and all He did for us through the finished work of the cross, we have chosen to put God's goodness on trial again? Can it be that even now, we so easily question the goodness of God by what we hear and see in the natural? When we have tasted and seen for ourselves, that God is good, how can we question His goodness based on the devastating results of sin we see all around us?

The devil and his despicable agents, work tirelessly, stirring up hatred and every evil thought and intention under the sun, in the minds and hearts of people everywhere. They continuously entice chaos and unrest wherever they roam. Famine and flood, sickness and death, calamity and devastation are their handiwork and their efforts are effective and touch all. Even the earth groans for her relief and release of the evil done and embedded in her. But the day will come, and is very near, when the devil and all his evil cohorts will be stopped and dealt with once and for all. The day of reckoning, a terrible day, where all will give account before God.

And in the meantime, because of His goodness, God, through the life and blood of His Son, made a way for us to live victorious in this cursed world. In spite of its evil, sorry state, because Jesus overcame the devil, sin and everything we will ever face in this world, we overcome too! John 16:33 says, "I have told you these things, so that in Me you may have [perfect] peace and confidence. In the world you have tribulation and trials and distress and frustration; but be of good cheer [take courage; be confident, certain, undaunted]! For I have overcome the world. [I have deprived it of power to harm you and have conquered it for you.]" AMPC.

Now, in Christ, we no longer have to live as victims to our circumstances. In Him, we are victorious over sin and all its deadly effects! 1 John 3:8 says, "The reason the Son of God was made manifest (visible) was to undo (destroy, loosen, and dissolve) the works the devil [has done]." AMPC.

THE HOME

I firmly believe in my heart that the family, and particularly the “home,” is a top priority in Jesus’ heart.

When Jesus was experiencing the most excruciating way of death on the cross that is known to man, He still could look down from His pain and suffering, and say to John (His special disciple), “behold your mother” and to Mary his earthly mother, “Behold your son.”

John 19:26-27 (NKJV), “When Jesus therefore saw His mother, and the disciple whom He loved standing by, He said to His mother, ‘Woman, behold your son!’ Then He said to the disciple, ‘Behold your mother!’ And from that hour that disciple took her to his own home.” That is how precious the family unit is to Jesus.

When I was a very young man in my early twenties, I was working on a Hereford beef stud ranch in Australia and I had to find accommodation in the small village close to the farm. The accommodation I chose was with probably one of the poorest families in the village. The father was working on the roads as a laborer and the mother was a waitress in a road house after hours. Yet I had enough finance to be able to get better accommodation, but I chose to stay with this family because they had a number of small children, and I was so desperately homesick for family (I’m a family man). I shared a room with two little boys. One slept on the top bunk, the other on the bottom bunk and I had to slide in to the middle bunk, but I was so happy because of the family atmosphere.

There is nothing more precious than the family. I would really appeal to those reading this article: do not take your families for granted. Billy Graham said: “If he had to live this life again, he would spend more time with his family.”

I remember very fondly the first outreach campaign that I ever had, which we planned in 1989 in Ladysmith. The meeting was held in the town hall and it was a big step of faith for me. I will never forget that first night when I made the altar call, a total of six people came to the front to give their lives to Jesus, which was a great miracle to me. After the service was completed, a fine looking young man came up to me and said that tonight he had committed his life to Christ, not because of the fancy music, or even because of the preaching, but rather because he saw me standing on the platform with my dear wife Jill, and my five children. The smallest one was still in her mother’s arms and that touched him so deeply, because he came from a broken home, and that is the one thing he desired more than anything else.

“A Nation is only as strong, as the family unit.” We really need to guard our homes with our very lives. In fact, Jesus said in Mark 8:36 “What does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses his soul (family).”

“WE REALLY NEED TO GUARD OUR HOMES WITH OUR VERY LIVES”

We need to be careful because some of us are so busy building our “empires” at the expense of neglecting our own families. We don't bring them up and school them in the principles of The Bible and as a result when they grow old they fall by the way. That is the exact opposite of what Proverbs 22:6 (NKJV) tells us to do, “Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it.”

When we grow old and our children have to inherit the fortune, or the Empire that we've created, and we built it at their expense, they will squander it because they've never been taught by you to look after it and they have no experience of managing it. Solomon the wisest man that ever lived said in Ecclesiastes 2:21 (NKJV) “This also is vanity and a great evil. For what has man for all his labor, and for the striving of his heart with which he has toiled under the sun.” It is a waste of time to leave all your labor and vanity to a man (your family) who has not labored for it, because it won't last. It is all chasing after the wind.

The only thing that you and I will take to Heaven one day, are the souls of men and nothing else. None of our empire, not our riches, not our successes, not our trophies, and not even our fame - only souls. What a tragedy it would be if we died and went to Heaven, and our families perished in eternal damnation, simply because we did not tell them that “Unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God.” (John 3:3). Let us spend more time building our families.

Watching television, the other night, a child specialist who deals with terminally ill children did a survey and ask the children, “What is the most important thing they would like before they died?” and they said, “To spend more time with their families and of course ice cream.”

God bless you,
Angus and Jill Buchan

THE MOST
GAP YEAR OF
YOUR LIFE

FULL & HALF YEAR OPTIONS

NOW AVAILABLE !

JANUARY - JUNE 2018 | JULY - NOVEMBER 2018

THE CONCEPT OF 'EXTREME EDUCATION' WAS DESIGNED TO PROVIDE A CHALLENGING ENVIRONMENT FOR YOUNG PEOPLE TO DISCOVER AND DEVELOP THEIR LEADERSHIP POTENTIAL

What makes your programme extreme and adventurous?

We offer students a wide range of extreme activities to participate in such as: sky diving, bungee jumping, scuba diving, mountain biking, abseiling, kayaking etc.

What is the value of a gap year programme?

A gap year gives young people time to reflect on what they think would be the college/varsity or career choice best suited to their needs. It allows them to clarify their interests and become aware of their strengths and weaknesses.

We also believe a gap year allows them to take advantage of learning that takes place outside the classroom and apply these skills in real life situations, within a protected environment. It is imperative that youths experience life in communities different from those in which they have been living and our extreme gap year programme offers them this experience. We further believe that gap years allow students to learn about a variety of careers before making a critical decision and to gain maturity, initiative and resourcefulness, all valuable life skills.

What outcome do you hope is achieved in every student's life once completing your programme?

Our programme is designed to meet, challenge and grow the complete individual, body, soul and spirit, as we train tomorrow's leaders today. Our desire is for the young person to have fun and 'discover themselves' as they are developed into a person with vision and purpose. We endeavour to take boys and girls and to mould them into young men and women that will have a positive influence on our society and the world.

Describe how the programme works - when is your intake, how long does it last and how much does it cost?

The Beyond Adventure Extreme Leadership Gap Year Programme was launched in 2001. We are located 100 kilometres north east of Port Elizabeth in Alicedale. We are situated close to some of the great game reserves such as Addo Elephant Park and Shamwari. Our programme runs from the last week in January till the middle of November. The students are accommodated in rooms where they will learn to live with three other students. Cost enquires and further info can be obtained from our offices as well as our website www.beyondadventure.co.za, under the download section.

What makes your programme unique as opposed to other Gap year courses?

We believe the Beyond Adventure concept to be unique in South Africa. The concept of 'Extreme Education' was designed to provide a challenging environment for young people to discover and develop their leadership potential. Leadership deals with direction, vision, purpose and principles and our leadership programme focuses on building the students up, making them aware of other cultures, helping them with emotional bank account building and strengthening them as individuals functioning in a group context.

Most importantly, we run a programme that is founded on Biblical principles with Jesus Christ as the foundation stone.

GROWING IN CHRIST LITTLE BY LITTLE

Joyce Meyer

I often teach on a variety of subjects, but I believe my primary calling is to help Christians grow up and mature in Christ and really begin to enjoy the great life He has in store for them.

As a young woman, I went to church for years, but I really didn't know much about spiritual maturity. I loved God with all of my heart, but I wasn't changing - I was still as critical, judgmental and rebellious as ever. And even though I knew my life should be getting better, I was still miserable from dealing with all of the same problems.

I believe this is one of Satan's greatest strategies. If he can't keep people from hearing the Gospel and accepting Christ, he will do everything he can to make sure they never grow spiritually and experience the peace and joy that's promised to them in the Bible.

You see, when we're born again, the Holy Spirit comes to live in our heart - God plants a seed of everything He is in our spirit. He instantaneously deposits inside of us everything we need to live a great life.

For instance, Galatians 5:22-23 (AMPC) says, "The fruit of the [Holy] Spirit [the work which His presence within accomplishes] is love, joy (gladness), peace, patience (an even temper, forbearance), kindness, goodness (benevolence), faithfulness, gentleness (meekness, humility), self-control...."

Did you know all of these things already exist on the inside of you? You may wonder, Well, if that's the case, then why aren't I experiencing any of it in my life?

LOVE, JOY, PEACE, PATIENCE, KINDNESS, GOODNESS, FAITHFULNESS, GENTLENESS & SELF-CONTROL

Well, when it comes to the maturity process, we have a part to play. Our part is to cooperate with God to cultivate and develop His character in our lives so we can grow and become more like Him. How do we do that?

It all begins by spending regular time in God's Word. Hebrews 4:12 says, "The Word that God speaks is alive and full of power [making it active, operative, energizing, and effective]...."

When we spend time in God's Word, we are spending time with God. His Word changes us - it changes how we think and how we act. It changes how we see God, ourselves and the world around us.

Romans 12:2 is a great scripture that shows us how we grow spiritually: "Do not be conformed to this world (this age), [fashioned after and adapted to its external, superficial customs], but be transformed (changed) by the [entire] renewal of your mind [by its new ideals and its new attitude], so that you may prove [for yourselves] what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of God...."

God has a "good and acceptable and perfect" plan for our lives, but we must renew our minds with His Word before we can experience it.

It's important to remember that growing spiritually is a process. When I first began to read and study God's Word, I immediately saw things I needed to change. For a while, I felt guilty and condemned that I wasn't "measuring up."

However, God helped me to understand that He never shows us these things to condemn us and make us feel guilty. He convicts us of our behavior in order to help us grow and come up higher in that area.

For example, I was extremely rebellious in the early years of my marriage. Because my father sexually abused me when I was growing up, I had developed a distrust of men. I vowed that no man would ever again push me around.

But as I learned God's Word, I saw that my behavior toward my husband, Dave, was wrong. The Lord was asking me to walk in love with Dave in my speech, attitudes and actions. This was easier said than done! But God always gives us the grace to do what He is asking us to do. He doesn't expect us to do it all on our own.

So, little by little, by God's grace, I began to change. The Lord transformed me from being rude, critical, harsh and rebellious into someone who has real peace, love and joy. But it was a process - it didn't happen overnight.

Look at 2 Corinthians 3:18. It says we "are constantly being transfigured into His very own image in ever increasing splendor and from one degree of glory to another."

The Lord changes us a little at a time. None of us will ever be perfect until we get to Heaven, and that's okay. But as long as we're here on this earth, God desires for us to continually cooperate with Him to learn and grow.

As we do - as we continue to grow spiritually and change "from glory to glory"- we will experience the incredible peace, joy and fulfillment that only God can give us. And we will show the world around us what God is really like.

8 REASONS WHY CHRISTIANS HAVE LOST CREDIBILITY IN TODAY'S CULTURE

We'd like to say we were shocked, but the truth is, we were expecting the criticism. My friend and marketing expert Jonathan Bock and I were asking people on the street what they thought about "Christians." The response? Hypocritical, judgmental, harsh, phony, insensitive, bigoted, and exclusive. Not exactly the "Fruit of the Spirit" the Bible describes as love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

That disconnect – the difference between what the Bible says we should be known for, and how those outside the Christian community actually describe us launched our new book project, "The Way Back: How Christians Blew Our Credibility And How We Get It Back."

We began the book thinking it was a marketing problem. After all, we're media and marketing experts and know the power of a great marketing campaign. But when we examined the research from major organizations like Gallup, Barna, Pew, Lifeway, and others it didn't take long to realize that we're not living the kind of lives that would make anyone want to become like us.

To put it simply, we don't have a marketing problem, we have a salesforce problem. Study after study reveals American Christians simply don't believe in our product anymore. Can we turn it around? We believe we can, but not until we get serious about living the kind of life that astonishes the surrounding world. Remember in the gospels how people were "astonished" at the message of Jesus? But 2,000 years later, how many people are astonished at our message or our lives today?

If you're serious about changing the direction of the culture, here are 8 good places to start:

GET SERIOUS ABOUT LIVING THE
KIND OF LIFE THAT ASTONISHES
THE SURROUNDING WORLD

1) Deepen Your Prayer Life – Research indicates that 37% of Christians don't even think prayer is essential. That's more than a third of American Christians! Our connection with God is rapidly being snuffed out, and we wonder why we're losing our momentum.

2) Start Showing Up – The Hartford Institute of Religion found on a typical Sunday, only 20% of Christians show up at a church at all – which means 80% of American Christians aren't. Over and over the New Testament calls us into a fellowship of believers. You can't do that in your bedroom, so let's get up and experience the power of joining together in worship.

3) Read Your Bible – LifeWay Research found that 40% of churchgoing Christians read the Bible "once a month, rarely or never." That means when it comes to the primary book informing us about the God of the universe, His remarkable and unfolding plan for our lives, and our eternal destiny, Christians think so little of it that we read it only when it's convenient. Maybe it's time we rediscovered the power of God's Word.

4) Get Serious about Giving – Only 10% of churchgoers give 10% or more of their income. Think of all the Christian work that never happens because we refuse to support it financially.

5) Become a better neighbour – Our friend and evangelist J John says, "You want to be a missionary? Great. Go next-door." Whose life could you impact on your own street or at your office? Don't worry about changing the world until you change your neighbourhood.

6) Be careful with politics – Vote, join a party, run for office. But keep the Church above the process. Think about it – the country is pretty evenly divided between parties, so when we drag the gospel into party politics, we've immediately alienated half of the country. How does that help the cause of Christ?

7) Be an example with your own family – Right now, the greatest hot-button issues in culture are about sex, gender, and marriage. What kind of impact could we make if Christians became known as the one group who are willing to go the distance to have amazing families? Being a powerful example would have far more impact than criticizing other people's choices.

8) Do it all with joy – The greatest key to reflecting the fruit of the Spirit is that you never actually have to "witness" to people. Trust us, when you're exhibiting traits like joy, love, and peace, people will come up to you and start asking about it! Living a joyous Christian life astonishes people and makes them curious about where your joy comes from.

All of our research for the book showed us that as a Christian community, we're simply not living the kind of life that astonishes or amazes unbelievers. Can we turn it around? The first believers certainly did. During the first few generations of the Church, those believers had no money, no political power, no influence, and no plan. But they had one thing the 21st Century Church has forgotten about: Commitment.

They believed so much in the reality of the gospel, they were willing to give up their possessions, their status, their reputations, and their lives. And because of the commitment, within a remarkably short time, their example turned the world upside down.

The question today is – is it easier to throw stones and blame others for Christianity's disappearing impact, or take a hard look at ourselves and start showing the world a new way to live.

Maybe it's time to try something "new." Something that 2,000 years ago transformed the world.

- SERMON DVD -

You've probably heard these treasured words before. Psalm 23 is one of the best-known, most often-quoted passages in Scripture. And, there's a beautiful reason why. In this five-week journey through the 23rd Psalm, Pastor Louie Giglio and Passion City Church lead us through the promises of the Good Shepherd, who commits to guide, restore, comfort and provide for us - for all of our days, in every season.

RECKLESS LOVE
CORY ASBURY (BETHEL)
- MUSIC -

Cory Asbury is a worship leader, songwriter and pastor who joined the Bethel Music Collective in May of 2015. Cory's third, highly-anticipated solo album, Reckless Love will release January 2018. The album's title track released in October and is rapidly becoming a worship anthem sung in churches around the world. His previous solo albums, Holy and Let Me See Your Eyes, include well-known songs "Where I Belong", "So Good to Me", "Always Faithful" and "Jesus, Let Me See Your Eyes". Cory is featured on Bethel Music's Have It All album with his song "Son of God", as well numerous IHOP-KC compilation albums.

INTO THE NIGHT
SOCIAL CLUB MISFITS
- MUSIC -

Social Club Misfits is back with their brand new studio album INTO THE NIGHT. With 13 tracks, and several special features from artists such as Danny Gokey, Jordin Sparks and Tauren Wells, INTO THE NIGHT picks up right where the hip-hop duo's last release, The Misadventures of Fern and Marty, left off. Fans can expect the innovative beats and witty rhymes that the Misfits have become known for, on tracks like "Lucky," "Dive," and pop-anthem "War Cry," but they can also expect to hear some exciting new sounds as the band explores more of their Latin heritage for the first time in "Tuyo" and "Solo." Marty and Fern share, "We wanted to make an album that really embodied who we are and what we believe in. This album is about being a light no matter where you are in life. We approached every song with this idea to challenge the stereotypes of what a "Christian artist" is supposed to be." The result is the genre-hopping, high energy, album: INTO THE NIGHT.

THE HIGHER EXPERIENCE
KELONTAE GAVIN
- MUSIC -

In 2013, at the mere age of 14, Kelontae Gavin was videotaped in a high school cafeteria singing "I Won't Complain.". His performance went viral and a million views later, he is now one of the most buzzed about new voices in Gospel music! This young phenom possesses the stage presence and vocal finesse of an artist twice his age. THE HIGHER EXPERIENCE not only showcases his passionate faith and vast vocal range, but also his preacher-like oratorical skills. This riveting recording boasts an exciting blend of the Pop pageantry of Hillsong United coupled with the fiery Pentecostal fervor of a take-no-prisoners band. Destined to be a huge hit, "No Ordinary Worship" was one of Billboard's most added songs in its first week at Gospel Radio, and it will soon be the calling card of KELONTAE GAVIN. This debut album also contains many other standout tracks, which will definitely provide listeners with THE HIGHER EXPERIENCE they've been craving!
