FROM THE EDITOR

WALDO MALAN

Education. This is a word and term that is bandied about often, sometimes carelessly and recklessly, sometimes in ignorance, but mostly for noble causes. After all, education generally is a noble cause since it defines the transference of knowledge from one generation to the next; this in turn begs us to appreciate noble aspirations, such as legacy.

But really, education begins and ends in the home, and has less to do with formal schooling than one may think! It seems to be a popular notion that education starts the day we are enrolled for Grade 1 (or Grade R or something similar) and then continues through to Grade 12; after that further education may or may not happen at college, technicon or university level, after which we go into our respective fields... educated and qualified. Nothing could be further from the truth.

As I said, education starts at home (or at the hospital) the day we are born. I believe we come into the world fully and perfectly formed as the person we are supposed to be. The road we need to walk (through education) from birth to death is the process of bringing out that perfect being, and that whole person. For most of us, the attainment of reaching that perfection while on earth is probably not feasible, however, it shouldn't stop us from trying. I also think that eternity (if we were to view eternity in terms of time – which it isn't!) is simply the continuance of this road. Until all eternity, I believe we will be involved in this educational process – discovering who and what we are in the fullness of God.

Now if this is my belief, then I've also set myself up for quite a task regarding my own children, to those for whom I am either a biological or spiritual father. (I use the word 'father' in the broadest sense when referring to my relationship with people with no biological connection). In truth, we all are constantly involved in this dual role – the role of educator and in the place of being educated. By the way, 'being educated' is not a destination, but rather a waypoint! Understanding the gravity of my responsibility I can no longer point a finger and make statements such as, "Yes, but the education system is this-or-that," when talking about the failings of our society. No, I must make up my mind that I am here to teach and learn all at the same time.

Understanding this responsibility is one thing, but it also implies that we need a measuring tool outside of ourselves that is bigger and better, further and more educated/informed, to guide us in the process. Fortunately, there is the Absolute against which we can measure anything from our achievement to our progress and everything in between. The Absolute, is of course, none other than the Creator, who conceived our shape and being in the first place.

So, our road of educational discovery is to find out more about the Creator; this will allow us to get to grips with who we are supposed to be, and allow us the grace to help every other person, who by necessity is hugely different than us. We are in this journey and adventure together, let us make the best of it and enjoy the ride.

Keep and guard your heart with all vigilance and above all that you guard

ANDRÉ & JENNY ROEBERT

Since our hearts (spirits), are the place where the life of God's Spirit flows in and through us; it's essential for us to constantly be aware of their condition.

Proverbs 4:23 "Keep and guard your heart with all vigilance and above all that you guard, for out of it flow the springs of life."

Those times we feel unease rise in our hearts, we must be diligent to take immediate action before that unsettling frustration leads to something that has the power to hinder the flow of supernatural life in and through our hearts. What a joy to know we don't need to fret and wonder over how to deal with the issues of our hearts. We have a wonderful partner in the Holy Spirit, Who not only loves us completely, but knows us thoroughly and is more than willing and able to lead us through the process of keeping our hearts healthy and uncontaminated.

Psalms 139:23-24 "Search me [thoroughly], O God, and know my heart! Try me and know my thoughts! And see if there is any wicked or hurtful way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting."

Two truths stand out to me here. Firstly, a way to an uncontaminated heart is a complete self surrender to the thorough inspection of the Holy Spirit. I really love this process, because I'm not afraid of the shameful things He may find, rather, I'm confident in how much He loves and cares for me. He is not critical or judgemental, and we can trust Him to do a complete and perfect work in us, without subjecting us to scrutiny.

Psalms 51:17 "My sacrifice [the sacrifice acceptable] to God is a broken spirit; a broken and a contrite heart [broken down with sorrow for sin and humbly and thoroughly penitent], such, O God, You will not despise."

A couple of months ago, my older son was playing with his siblings and a few friends in a river, on a farm. The mud on the river bed is a thick, black, mucky clay that sucks and sticks fast onto anyone who ventures into it. Somehow, in all the excitement, a hand full of that yucky, black mud got flung straight into his eyes. No matter how they tried, they just couldn't get it splashed out and he was in agony. Somehow, they managed to lead him back to the house where I could lay him down and gently get each mucky, clump of black goo out of his eyes. Afterward, I gently treated his eyes with disinfectant drops. My son's desire to get free of the pain, far outweighed any discomfort he endured from me prodding and probing into his extremely sensitive eyes. He trusted me to take care of him, no matter how intrusive the process. Just the same, we can openly and wholeheartedly surrender ourselves to the precious Holy Spirit, welcoming His intimate touch in the most secret chambers of our hearts and minds. All it takes is a willingness for us to come before Him, and yield ourselves to His touch. And then to wait for and expect Him to wash over our souls, doing a deep, thorough work through His presence. I've often found some of my greatest times of refreshing and healing comes from 'losing myself' in His presence during worship, whether alone at home, in my car, or even in church.

Isaiah 55:1 "WAIT and listen, everyone who is thirsty! Come to the waters; and he who has no money, come, buy and eat! Yes, come, buy [priceless, spiritual] wine and milk without money and without price [simply for the self-surrender that accepts the blessing]."

Get Radical Results By Changing Your Mind

JOYCE MEYER

For many years I went to church faithfully, week after week, but I wasn't living a victorious Christian life. I read my Bible every day, served on the evangelism board and went door-to-door telling people about Jesus because I really wanted to serve God. But even though I was doing those things, I was still miserable most of the time.

While I learned a good foundation about salvation through God's grace at my church, I wasn't learning how to change and be transformed into the image of Christ by renewing my mind, according to God's Word.

It caused me to live in a frustrating cycle that went like this: Go to church on Sunday, fight with my husband during the week, get frustrated with my kids a lot and feel miserable, depressed, angry - like a mess - and then go back to church on Sunday to get "right" with God again. I felt like I didn't know how to act like a sane human being.

It all begins with renewing our minds. The choice is up to us.

Ephesians 4:23-24 (AMPC) says to “be constantly renewed in the spirit of your mind [having a fresh mental and spiritual attitude], and put on the new nature (the regenerate self) created in God’s image....”

This is so important, because it’s impossible to have a positive, peaceful life and at the same time have a negative mind.

But when we take time to renew our minds with God’s Word, we learn how to think like God thinks, say what God says, and act like He wants us to act. Then we can have what He wants us to have - abundant life in Christ, filled with His righteousness, peace and joy. (See John 10:10 and Romans 14:17.)

How Are You Supposed to Think?

The first thing we need to understand is that when we become new creations in Christ (2 Corinthians 5:17), what is normal for the world is no longer normal for us. There’s a way we’re supposed to live that reflects the image of Christ in the world.

For example, many people think it’s normal to worry, but as a Christian, worrying is not a normal way of thinking. Philippians 4:6 says we are to “be anxious for nothing” (NKJV). This doesn’t mean we won’t ever feel worried, but when we do, we can pray and give it to God so we can have His peace while we go through the challenges of life. First Corinthians 2:16 (AMPC) says “we have the mind of Christ.” This means no matter what our circumstances may be, we can have God’s wisdom, discernment and peace to guide our decisions in the midst of them.

We can live with these mind-sets:

1. The Made-Up Mind: Colossians 3:2 says to “set your minds and keep them set on what is above...not on the things that are on the earth” (AMPC). The only way we can accomplish what we really want to do in life is by determining what God has put in our hearts to do and then setting our minds to do it. With the help of the Holy Spirit, you can make up your mind and stop over-thinking your decisions.

2. The Humble Mind: Philippians 2:5 says, “Let this same attitude and purpose and [humble] mind be in you which was in Christ Jesus...” (AMPC). A person with a humble mind is peaceful because they can wait on God’s timing and follow His direction; they don’t constantly struggle with wondering why or when. And they aren’t judgmental or critical of others.

3. The Focused Mind: We live in an age of distraction! It’s amazing how much information is coming at us most of the time through technology, the media and the busyness of the world around us. I’ve decided that the world probably isn’t going to change, so I have to change. I’m learning how to keep my mind on what I’m doing, rather than thinking about several things at once or what I want to do next.

You Can Choose

There is a way to have righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Spirit - to have victory in our circumstances and not live based on what the world views as “normal.” And it all begins with renewing our minds. The choice is up to us.

Make the decision to spend time each day reading and meditating on the Word. Pray and ask God to help you understand how to apply the wisdom you discover to your everyday life. As you do your part to renew your mind, God will do His. And you’ll love the transformation that comes with having a “normal” mind—the mind of Christ!

BEYOND ADVENTURE

Extreme Gap year

THE MOST EXTREME LEADERSHIP GAP YEAR OF YOUR LIFE

FULL & HALF YEAR OPTIONS

NOW AVAILABLE !

JANUARY - JUNE 2018 | JULY - NOVEMBER 2018

THE CONCEPT OF 'EXTREME EDUCATION' WAS DESIGNED TO PROVIDE A CHALLENGING ENVIRONMENT FOR YOUNG PEOPLE TO DISCOVER AND DEVELOP THEIR LEADERSHIP POTENTIAL

What makes your programme extreme and adventurous?

We offer students a wide range of extreme activities to participate in such as: sky diving, bungee jumping, scuba diving, mountain biking, abseiling, kayaking etc.

What is the value of a gap year programme?

A gap year gives young people time to reflect on what they think would be the college/varsity or career choice best suited to their needs. It allows them to clarify their interests and become aware of their strengths and weaknesses.

We also believe a gap year allows them to take advantage of learning that takes place outside the classroom and apply these skills in real life situations, within a protected environment. It is imperative that youths experience life in communities different from those in which they have been living and our extreme gap year programme offers them this experience. We further believe that gap years allow students to learn about a variety of careers before making a critical decision and to gain maturity, initiative and resourcefulness, all valuable life skills.

What outcome do you hope is achieved in every student's life once completing your programme?

Our programme is designed to meet, challenge and grow the complete individual, body, soul and spirit, as we train tomorrow's leaders today. Our desire is for the young person to have fun and 'discover themselves' as they are developed into a person with vision and purpose. We endeavour to take boys and girls and to mould them into young men and women that will have a positive influence on our society and the world.

Describe how the programme works - when is your intake, how long does it last and how much does it cost?

The Beyond Adventure Extreme Leadership Gap Year Programme was launched in 2001. We are located 100 kilometres north east of Port Elizabeth in Alicedale. We are situated close to some of the great game reserves such as Addo Elephant Park and Shamwari. Our programme runs from the last week in January till the middle of November. The students are accommodated in rooms where they will learn to live with three other students. Cost enquires and further info can be obtained from our offices as well as our website www.beyondadventure.co.za, under the download section.

What makes your programme unique as opposed to other Gap year courses?

We believe the Beyond Adventure concept to be unique in South Africa. The concept of 'Extreme Education' was designed to provide a challenging environment for young people to discover and develop their leadership potential. Leadership deals with direction, vision, purpose and principles and our leadership programme focuses on building the students up, making them aware of other cultures, helping them with emotional bank account building and strengthening them as individuals functioning in a group context.

Most importantly, we run a programme that is founded on Biblical principles with Jesus Christ as the foundation stone.

Childlike Faith

Believe, trust... live for the moment

ANGUS BUCHAN

If we look at the Word of God, we see the love and the simplicity that Jesus has for little children. Mark 10:13-16 (NKJV) says, “Then they brought little children to Him, that He might touch them; but the disciples rebuked those who brought them. But when Jesus saw it, He was greatly displeased and said to them, ‘Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of such is the kingdom of God. Assuredly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will by no means enter it.’ And He took them up in His arms, laid His hands on them, and blessed them.”

As I'm growing older, God is giving me such patience and love for little children. It is such a pleasure for me to be able to spend time with my grandchildren. I am a very privileged man because God has blessed me and my wife, Jill, with eleven grandchildren and we also have many adopted children. My youngest grandchild is a mere nine months old and her name is Rebecca. One of the meanings of the word Rebecca is: “captivating.”

She surely captivates me. In fact, she's got me right around her little finger. She is so beautiful, trusting and such a happy little soul. She is prepared to go to anyone who would like to hold her, and she brings a peace about her no matter what environment she's in – so simplistic in her ways.

Jesus requires you and me to have childlike faith and not childish faith. What is childlike faith? It is: to believe and not continue questioning, to be trusting, to live for the moment, and not to be so competitive like the world seems to teach us. In fact, Jesus wants us to be completely opposite to the world's standards. The world teaches us to fight for everything we have; that to be the best we must trample on people all the way to the top; to not regard anyone else; but little children do not do that. They are giving, loving and trusting.

I can imagine the situation when Jesus had been preaching all day and was totally exhausted; then, the women brought little children to Jesus to ask Him to bless them. The disciples who loved the Lord could see that He was tired, so they tried to prevent the little ones to come to Him. But the Lord got quite irate and severely reprimanded

His disciples. He said to them, I imagine quite sternly, “Let the little children come to Me and do not forbid them.” The Bible says that Jesus then blessed them, and He said to the disciples “unless you are converted and become as little children, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven.” (Matthew 18:3)

Education is a wonderful thing and my children are all well-educated. I had the privilege of being able to afford to give them the best education I could, but education is not everything. One Prime Minister, Lloyd George, said “Education without Christ just makes clever little devils”. That might sound a bit humorous, but it is true. Our children need Jesus and they need Him at all cost. It has been said “educators complicate, but communicators simplify”. We need to keep the Gospel of Jesus Christ very simple because there is nothing difficult about it. Jesus even rebuked the Pharisees once about making it so hard for a man to enter into the Kingdom of Heaven (Matthew 23:13). All that God requires from us is childlike faith.

I have another grandchild who is seven years old, Nathan. He heard his Khulu (the Zulu word for grandfather, which is what they call me) preaching a message on “quiet time”. Spending time in the presence of God and putting the Lord first every day. He then wrote a message in his best handwriting on a piece of paper and gave it to me. It read, “Jesus is like a flame, you have to keep Him burning in your life.” I was quite astounded when he gave me that piece of paper. In fact, I went and asked his father later when we were on our own if he had inspired Nathan to write that note, but he didn't know anything about it. That little boy realizes that if we don't spend time with the Lord, the fire of Christ in our hearts will go out. I haven't heard anything more profound!

Let us rather spend more time getting to know Jesus personally than trying to make Him academic. He is “a friend who sticks closer than a brother”. (Proverbs 18:24).

God bless you as you develop your relationship with the Lord and as you study the characteristics of young children; that is how sincere our faith we ought to be if we are to enter God's Kingdom.

God bless
Angus Buchan

What Does Excellence Really Mean?

The word “excellence” is tossed around a lot in leadership and creative circles these days, but the truth is, few people really understand what it actually means. Everyone wants to be excellent, and most people associate it with quality; however, real excellence is so much more. Here’s a few attributes of excellence that you should consider:

Relevance

To be excellent means to be relevant. Relevant isn’t about appealing to a young audience or being trendy. Relevance is about selecting the right tool for the job. That simply means that when you’re being excellent, you are using the right strategy to fix the problem. Good decisions are a key component of excellence.

Appropriate

There are many ways to solve a problem, behave, be creative, or lead, but the right way in the right circumstance is the excellent choice. As the #MeToo movement continues to grow, we’re seeing more and more situations where leaders made bad choices – and while those leaders may have been influential at the time; their choices were in no way excellent.

Relational

No matter how great the quality of your product, project, or action, unless it’s relational, its excellence will be in question. Great leaders understand that they work through people, so it’s never just about making a project or product.

Resilience

I always include resilience in any conversation about excellence, because the ability to come back after a failure or setback is critical to an excellent outcome. Be tough. Have grit. Stop taking “no” for an answer.

Quality isn’t always the best definition of excellence. Being extraordinary at what you do is only the beginning of the road to excellence. Quality matters, but next time you desire to be excellent, think of the bigger picture, because that’s how people are looking at you.

Who You Spend Time With Will Determine Your Future

Since we were kids our parents warned us about hanging out with the wrong people, and as adults, we look back and realize they were exactly right. The truth is, the people you run with are the people who will inspire, educate, and motivate you – or ruin your life. In short, they have a very big impact on your future. I was watching one of my “guilty pleasure” TV programs the other day: The A&E Network show “Intervention.”

It’s a program about people struggling with alcohol and drug addiction and eventual interventions with professional counselors. It hit me how many of the episodes reveal that at some point, they started in the wrong direction because of people they were spending time with. Over and over in the series you’ll hear that they were doing great- all-star athletes, scholars, creatives – but then they met _____. And after that, everything went south.

In the same way, during news reports after a young person commits a horrible crime – robbery, arson, or murder – when the parents are interviewed they almost always say, “He was a great kid, but at some point he fell in with the wrong crowd.”

Now, think about it in terms of your career or calling. Who do you spend the most time with? Do they inspire you to accomplish more? Explore your spiritual and creative side? Push your limits? Encourage you to not give up? Support your ideas?

Give it some serious thought, because if not, this might be the moment to start spending more time with different friends....

JESUS GROWING UP

Jesus, God's own son,
was a child like you.
We learn about Jesus
as he was growing up.

God said in the Bible he would send his own Son to earth. People watched and waited. When it was the right time
Jesus was born in Bethlehem.

God put Jesus in a family.
He gave him a mother called Mary and a father called Joseph, to look after him.
At Christmas time we remember Jesus' birthday.

Jesus grew and grew.
He loved God and he loved Mary and Joseph.
They all went to church to learn about God.
Jesus loved to help at home.

Joseph made things from wood and showed Jesus how to make things too.
He listened and obeyed.
Jesus loved to help.

It was soon time for Jesus to teach people.
He found 12 helpers, sometimes called Disciples.
Jesus made sick people better.
He told stories about God.

Little children came to see Jesus.
They loved to hear his stories about God.
He was so kind and he was fun. Jesus said,
"Everyone should love me like these children do!"

God put YOU in a family.
He wants you to grow up to know Him
and to love him too.
Jesus loves YOU!
