FROM THE EDITOR

Waldo Malave

There is a great word in the English language, that when practically implemented, make for an extremely civilized society. That word is of course “sportsmanship.” Now, sportsmanship really speaks of an attitude we display to our fellowmen (and for those among our readers who are very PC minded, fellowmen includes ladies as well). We’ve all heard the oh-so-British expression (and hear it with the Queen’s accent), “Be a sport, old boy!”

But more than this, sportsmanship speaks about the respect we have and display for one another, whether on the sports field or off. Good sportsmanship speaks about our consideration for those who occupy our space, and also for the space we occupy of others.

The origin of the word (I assume) would have been from the sports arena where, even in a highly charged and competitive surrounding, one could accept defeat with a certain amount of grace. Recently, with the World Cup held in South Africa, we had great examples of both good sportsmanship as well as poor displays of attitude and behaviour. I also think that as parents (and as teachers of our future leaders) we have a tremendous responsibility towards training our children in the art of sportsmanship. Sportsmanship, like charity, starts at home!

But sportsmanship extends into all arenas of life, doesn’t it? Would you not consider it good sportsmanship when people obey the rules of the road, stopping at a red traffic light for example! Gentleman standing up when a lady enters a room, a guy standing back to allow a lady first entrance into a room (Western culture), or a guy walking into a room first to make sure the lady following him will be safe (African cultures).

And then, of course, I think good or poor sportsmanship extends even into the spiritual realm; I equate sportsmanship with attitude, so the extent to which you approach life will yield the desired results. Spiritually speaking our lives can either be ruled by fear or by faith – there is no middle ground in life. When we are ruled by fear, our attitudes will tend to display the negativity and poor sportsmanship (rudeness, impatience, anger) will result. However, the flipside is when we approach life with a positive attitude that is based in faith. Now faith for me is a two-way street; it is firstly the faith we have in God and ourselves to accomplish things, and secondly (and equally important) the faith that God has in us! God’s faith in us should be a motivating factor for a good attitude, after all, He entrusted us with the message of hope and love to give to a world lost in fear and insecurity.

So the next time we find ourselves in a situation where we are tempted to display poor sportsmanship, perhaps it would do us well to remember that our real task on earth is to support, encourage and build up the people around us with a positive and love-filled message of hope.

IT'S A NEW YEAR

André & Jenny Roebert

Let's dig into the treasure of God's Word to discover

It is already the second month of a brand-new year, but allow me, for a moment, to take stock and talk about what still lies ahead. Just in case you were expecting me to write about a long list of New Year's resolutions we should all probably consider trying and sticking to, let me put you at ease, I'm not going to. I do however want to share what I would love to see happen in my life this year: In 2018, I want us to really live this journey of life just as Christ has purposed us to live it! Nothing less, by any means! But for this to become our reality, we should be very sure of what life He has in mind for us. Let's dig into the treasure of God's Word to discover and renew our minds to what His purpose is concerning us, so that we can confidently stand on His truth to attain it!

I am so grateful for the Word. Beside it being the ultimate truth, the life and peace that flows from it each time we choose to make it our own and believe it as God's final authority concerning us, is invaluable. Countless times, the Word has been all I have had to hold onto, my only hope in so many of life's unpredictable twists and turns. God's promises to us are indispensable, they are His perfect will for us along this ever-changing journey we travel in this fallen world. To not know our covenant promises is to live without real hope; causing us to be helplessly tossed from one circumstance to the next, subject to whatever they dictate and limit us to.

Now that's not living! And it's certainly not what Jesus paid the price of His very Own life for either. No, in John 10:10, He said, "The thief comes only in order to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have and enjoy life, and have it in abundance (to the full, till it overflows)." That doesn't just mean life in heaven, when we leave the earth. Nor does it refer to only spiritual well-being. The abundant life Jesus provided for us to live in includes provision, peace and joy in every area of our lives, be it spiritual, mental or physical. Jesus declared, "I am [Myself] the Resurrection

if you choose to follow this simple pattern of spending time with Him each day, you will discover how real and powerful His Word can be in your life and the Life. Whoever believes in (adheres to, trusts in, and relies on) Me, although he may die, yet he shall live; And whoever continues to live and believes in (has faith in, cleaves to, and relies on) Me shall never [actually] die at all.” (John 11:25-26). The resurrection life Jesus is offering all who continue to live and believe in Him, is a promise of the full, abundant life we can have in intimately knowing Him and His Word while we are here, travelling through the journey of life on earth.

So, since it is God’s will for us to live a full, satisfied and abundant life, how do we practically manage to do this in a world that is so unpredictable and full of constant challenges? Life is messy and bad things happen to all people. How do we really live this journey without being victims to the circumstances that constantly threaten to steal what has been promised us? I know for a fact that to remain in a place of hopeful faith, and in the safety of supernatural peace, and soul strengthening joy; I must be careful to constantly give myself to the things of God. I must surround myself with His Word. You see, the Word was inspired by God Himself. That means on each page, from beginning to end, if we open the eyes of our hearts to it, we will find the Spirit of God and His great love for us woven into every truth. And it’s really not difficult for us to do this! A wonderful advantage of technology today, is we have access to powerful, Holy Spirit inspired teachings on the Word! We can plug our earphones into our devices and hear the Word while we do our daily chores, or travel from place to place. We can download excellent reading material that fills us with the truth of God’s Word. I always find when I’m listening to the Word being taught, or reading what it says, my entire being becomes washed by its truth. It heals, refreshes and restores my hope and trust in the Lord and His faithfulness towards me.

Time and again I’ll be in tears as the Holy Spirit tenderly ministers to me while I’m reading or listening to teachings on Him and His Word, whether at home or travelling in my car. One place the Holy Spirit ministers the Word to me and reinforces me with hope and inner strength has been on the airplane. There is no limit to where and when the Holy Spirit can make God’s Word alive and powerfully vital to us.

My encouragement to you this week, is to decide to up the time and attention you give to the Word of God in your own journey of life. If you are anything like me, and truly desire to live this journey I’ve been given just as God intended for me to live; then we need to make knowing Him, and His will for us, our priority.

To be extremely practical, go before the Lord and set a goal to spend a certain amount of uninterrupted time with Him, in His Word each day this week. And trust Him to help you stick to it. Don’t go overboard and make it a legalistic chore, you’ll kill the joy and excitement before you even begin!

As you carefully listen to, or read what He leads you to each day, be sure to spend a few moments reflecting and meditating on it. Then, before you carry on with the responsibilities of the day, be sure to write something down about it. Anything you felt the Holy Spirit touch your heart with. You may be inspired to practically do something with the truth He highlighted to you, even encourage someone else with it during your day. When you do, it will anchor that truth even more securely inside your heart and mind, and it will become your truth!

I have no doubt, that if you choose to follow this simple pattern of spending time with Him each day, you will discover how real and powerful His Word can be in your life. You will also be obeying exactly what Jesus said we must do to live in the fullness He has for us, along this journey of life. You will be abiding in Him! One day at a time, let’s move closer to knowing Him and really live this journey together! 📌

DISCOVER YOUR SELF-WORTH

Joyce Meyer

You are valuable because God loves you and He gave His only Son, Jesus Christ, to die for you

Every person on earth needs to know they matter - they need to know they're valuable and they mean something to someone. The problem is when people don't get a good start in life, they often waste their lives searching for self-worth in all the wrong places.

In the world today, people so often base their value and importance on what they do, how much education they have, who they know, what kind of clothes they wear, how they look, their job title, and the list goes on.

But when worldly standards determine your sense of self-worth, you'll always be striving to please people...and it will derail you from your God-given destiny. The only way to find true security and have a healthy self-esteem is by knowing and experiencing the love of God.

The apostle Paul talks about this in Galatians 1:10. He says: "Am I now trying to win the favor and approval of men, or of God? Or am I seeking to please someone? If I were still trying to be popular with men, I would not be a bond-servant of Christ" (AMP).

He's basically saying, "If I were trying to be popular with people, I wouldn't be serving God and know that He loves me."

I can say with certainty that if I was trying to be popular with people, I wouldn't be doing what I'm doing today. When God spoke to my heart about His call on my life to teach the Word, I didn't receive much support from those around me.

As I began to step out and do what God placed in my heart, some of my friends and family told me I shouldn't be doing it. I was even asked to leave the church I was attending at the time, and I ended up losing friendships that I thought were important to me.

It was a very difficult season, but I discovered that while it's not always easy to do what God calls us to do, obedience to Him is always worth it in the end. Doing things God's way is the only thing that works in the long run. There are people in your life—I'm talking about people other than your spouse and children—who may come and go over time, but God will always be with you because He loves you and He promises to never leave you nor forsake you (see Hebrews 13:5).

The bottom line is you are valuable because God loves you and He gave His only Son, Jesus Christ, to die for you. Your worth is not based on how you look, who you know, your title at work or any of the other superficial things the world considers impressive.

After Paul met Christ and became a born-again believer, he came to realize that everything else was meaningless compared to the priceless privilege of knowing God. I absolutely love what he says in Philippians 3:8 "I count everything as loss compared to the priceless privilege and supreme advantage of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord [and of growing more deeply and thoroughly acquainted with Him—a joy unequaled]. For His sake I have lost everything, and I consider it all garbage, so that I may gain Christ."

The truth that God loves you is what makes you valuable. He created you because He loves you and wants to have a personal relationship with you. He has wonderful plans and purposes for your life, and His love for you is unconditional—He loves you just as much on your worst day as He does on your best day!

No matter what your past is like, where you're from, what you've done, or where you are today, God is there for you and He loves you! He loves us all the same, and He wants to meet us right where we are to heal our wounded souls and bring us out of the messes we're in—whether it's a mess we've created or the result of what other people have done to us.

After the years of being abused by my dad and abandoned by my mother (who knew what he was doing but didn't have the courage to stand up to him), I was so messed up! I felt worthless, guilty, damaged, used, condemned and terribly insecure. I tried to find my worth and value in many things, especially in work. And living this way just made me more miserable, angry and messed up.

It was so wonderful to discover that God loves me and to find the healing and restoration I desperately needed through my relationship with Him. The truth is God is so much more important to us than any person in the world could ever be!

I want to encourage you to spend time seeking God in prayer, studying what the Bible says about who He is and how He loves you. Meditate on scriptures like Ephesians 1:4-5, Romans 8, Psalm 27:10 and Isaiah 38:17. Ask God to help you learn to receive His love and find your true worth in Him. He chose you on purpose...He wants you and He loves you... and there's nothing more valuable than that.

A gap year gives young people time to reflect on what they think would be the college/varsity or career choice best suited to their needs.

What makes your programme extreme and adventurous?

We offer students a wide range of extreme activities to participate in such as: scuba diving, mountain biking, abseiling, kayaking, paint ball, 4x4 off-road driving, etc.

What is the value of a gap year programme?

A gap year gives young people time to reflect on what they think would be the college/varsity or career choice best suited to their needs. It allows them to clarify their interests and become aware of their strengths and weaknesses.

We also believe a gap year allows them to take advantage of learning that takes place outside the classroom and apply these skills in real life situations, within a protected environment. It is imperative that youths experience life in communities different from those in which they have been living and our extreme gap year programme offers them this experience. We further believe that gap years allow students to learn about a variety of careers before making a critical decision and to gain maturity, initiative and resourcefulness, all valuable life skills.

What outcome do you hope is achieved in every student's life once completing your programme?

Our programme is designed to meet, challenge and grow the complete individual, body, soul and spirit, as we train tomorrow's leaders today. Our desire is for the young person to have fun and 'discover themselves' as they are developed into a person with vision and purpose. We endeavour to take boys and girls and to mould them into young men and women that will have a positive influence on our society and the world.

Describe how the programme works - when is your intake, how long does it last and how much does it cost?

The Beyond Adventure Extreme Leadership Gap Year Programme was launched in 2001. We are located 100 kilometres north east of Port Elizabeth in Alicedale. We are situated close to some of the great game reserves such as Addo Elephant Park and Shamwari.

Our programme runs from mid January till the first week of December.

The students are accommodated in rooms where they will learn to live with three other students.

Cost enquires and further info can be obtained from our offices as well as our website.

What makes your programme unique as opposed to other Gap year courses?

We believe the Beyond Adventure concept to be unique in South Africa. The concept of 'Extreme Education' was designed to provide a challenging environment for young people to discover and develop their leadership potential. Leadership deals with direction, vision, purpose and principles and our leadership programme focuses on building the students up, making them aware of other cultures, helping them with emotional bank account building and strengthening them as individuals functioning in a group context.

Most importantly, we run a programme that is founded on Biblical principles with Jesus Christ as the foundation stone.

A CRY FOR

Angus Buchan

HELP

every knee will bow,
and every tongue will
confess that Jesus
Christ is Lord

“First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brothers eye.”

If we read the Book of Psalm 10:1-18, we will see clearly how it appears that the wicked in this world always succeed. They become extremely arrogant and they gloat over their desires, while boasting of abusing God. They make foolish jokes about “Where is this God that you are always talking about?” They say to their friends, “Let us go and eat, and drink and be merry because tomorrow we die.” They have no respect for God and of course they do not believe in eternal life.

We need to pray for these people very sincerely, because The Bible tells us that every knee will bow, and every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord. (Romans 14:11). The righteous and unrighteous will be judged accordingly. Psalm 10 goes on to say that the wicked man’s mouth is filled with curses, deceit and with cunning plans. His thoughts are harm and evil. He is continually working out how he’s going to take advantage of the innocent, the poor, the widow and the orphan. He literally prowls around like a lion, waiting to take advantage of the poor. He catches the needy and pulls the net tight.

How often do we see this happening today and many people say, “Lord, where is Your justice?” Never forget that every single one of us, will be judged accordingly on the day of judgement. I don’t know how many agnostics and those who have turned their backs on God come and say to me, “This God of yours, you say is a ‘God of justice.’ How can people like (and they use the names of the tyrants) of this world go free and just do what they please?” Well the answer to that question is, they will not go free and ultimately, they will not do as they please, because the day of judgement is coming for them. So, if anything, we need to really pray for those who oppress us because their judgement will be extremely severe.

My excuse before I gave my heart to Jesus Christ was that if so-and-so is a Christian, then I will go to heaven before Him, because he does not even feed his family, he does not honour his wife, and he does not pay his staff a decent days pay for a decent days work, but it was only after I gave my life to the Lord, that I realised that on the day of judgement, the man that I thought was a Christian because he said so, was not even to be found in Heaven, because the Lord does not know him. We need to be more concerned about our own salvation, our lifestyle and the way in which we manage our own lives, rather than to be concerned about the evil whom the Lord will judge accordingly. He has promised us that very clearly in Psalm 10. Jesus says in Matthew 7:5 (NKJV), “Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother’s eye.”

We need to understand that no one on this earth will get away scot free for actions of greed, hatred, violence, or selfishness. Every single man will have to give an account for his life on earth.

So, may God bless you, as you take into consideration your own life before you are concerned about the supposed success of the evildoer. He will be judged by a very just and gracious God.

God bless
Angus Buchan

Marty and Fern share, "We wanted to make an album that really embodied who we are and what we believe in. This album is about being a light no matter where you are in life.
