FROM THE EDITOR

Waldo Malan

To all our readers who are mothers, grandmothers, great-grandmothers, aspiring mothers, just-born-and-growing-to-be-a-mother - a really blessed Mother's Day!

Blessed, not in the sense of a commercial overdose, but blessed in the true sense of the word. Blessed means to have joy and be happy while being successful and prosperous in all endeavours of life! You deserve it.

As the world celebrates this special day there is much laughter and great happiness and a general sense of appreciation, gratitude and thankfulness. At the same time, however, we are also called to take note of those who are not participating in this general atmosphere of celebration. There are those mothers who are grieving a loss of a child, there are those in hospital having just experienced an abortion, even others with tears of frustration on their faces at yet another failed attempt at falling pregnant.

Each of these women will be the sum total of their life's experiences up to that point, each one having tasted different circumstances, each one surrounded by the vastness of life itself, in whichever form. Yet, despite circumstances and choices, at heart each one remains fully a woman. And perhaps this is what we'd really like to celebrate with you this month: living fully as a total woman!

We celebrate your womanhood with you. We take pleasure in your infinite ways of expressing your femininity. We are content to participate in a small part of your life. We take joy in the fact that God, after seeing it was not good for man to be alone, came up with a brand new design that He deemed good!

Hey guys, just as you thought of putting the magazine down, have no fear as we have not forgotten you! Let us take note to also live our lives fully as only men can. And let us, together with the great women in our lives, build cohesive families that are strong and united in love. Make your home a palace of peace, a lair of love and a castle of contentment. We make a stand for a social, cultural and spiritual change to see families restored in all aspects.

GIVE YOURSELF TO THE WORD

André & Jenny Roebert

WE GIVE THE ENEMY FREE REIGN THROUGH THE WAY WE THINK!

According to scripture there is a battle that is being waged over the well being of your life. The Word of God says that the devil, your enemy, has come to kill, steal and destroy everything concerning you. The good news is, Colossians 2:15, says that because of the finished work of the cross, “[God] disarmed the principalities and powers...” and has taken away their power to harm us. That means the only legal way our enemy, the devil, can harm you or me, is by causing us to open the door of our lives to give him free access to do so.

How do we give him the power to harm us? We give the enemy free reign through the way we think! When it comes to the battles and conflicts we face in this life, the human mind plays the role of the strategic control centre of every battle. Romans 6:16 says that whoever we give our minds to, will become our master. Our minds are the battle fields where the very heart beat of the war that wages on over the well being of our lives takes place. The devil's strategy is to bombard our minds with worrisome, fretful thoughts. As he manipulates circumstances around us, it becomes easy to pay attention to those negative thoughts, which in turn, causes us to feel anxious and fearful. Before we realise what has happened, fear has crept into our minds and is able to begin its destructive work, from the inside out.

No matter who we are, where we live or what our earthly circumstances are, if we are in this world, we are going to rub shoulders with incidents that have the potential to make us fearful. Fear is a destructive spiritual force that has the power to paralyse our ability to reason, send our emotions into turmoil and neutralise our faith - causing it to become inoperable. As believers who are promised a life of abundant peace, joy, provision and protection - how is it possible for us to live free from fear when the potential to be touched by it is all around us?

Well, it's really quite simple. If the devil has brought the battle to our minds, then it's up to us to take control of the battlefield and enforce his defeat! Romans 12:2 urges and instructs us to make sure we are constantly renewing our minds to the truth of God's Word. It's the only way we are going to flush out those dreaded, fearful thoughts that hold our minds and bodies captive. It's also the only way we are going to be infused with God's supernatural inner strength to overcome. As we spend more time meditating on the Word of God and in prayer that is influenced by the truth we find in it, our trust in God grows stronger than the fear that's trying to overcome us. And when we are more convinced of what God's Word says concerning us, than what those fearful thoughts are saying, our freedom and victory comes.

It's so amazing to me that God wants to be involved in every area of our lives. I remember when I got this revelation, and it changed my life.

At that time, I was part of a bowling league and we played once a week. I remember one night when I wasn't bowling very well and I heard this prompting in my heart that said, "Ask Me to help you." Immediately I thought, "I can't ask God to help me bowl!"

But the truth is He wants to help us with everything we do. And when I started letting Him be involved in every area of my life – following the leading of the Holy Spirit – that's when life got really exciting!

What does it mean to be led by the Holy Spirit? Some may refer to it as being filled with – or sensitive to or anointed by – the Spirit. It sounds really spiritual, yet being led by the Spirit is actually a very practical part of living the Christian life. Simply put, to be led by the Holy Spirit just means to be obedient to Him.

The Holy Spirit does such awesome, yet practical work in the lives of God's children. He is our Comforter, Counselor, Helper, Intercessor, Advocate, Strengthener and Standby. He teaches us and guides us into truth...and He even brings the things we learn back to our remembrance as we need it.

And the best part of it all is that He lives in each of us. Ephesians 3:16 (AMPC) tells us that He enables us to be "...strengthened and reinforced with mighty power in the inner man by the [Holy] Spirit [Himself indwelling your innermost being and personality]."

He comes to live in our hearts when we're born again, and then He teaches and guides us according to God's plan and purpose for us. One of the ways He does this is by convicting us of the sins in our life, and we learn what's right and wrong as we grow in our faith. We may get by with things that are not right for awhile, but the time comes when we need to grow up.

I remember when I would go to church every Sunday and then gossip about the pastor or whatever I didn't like about the service. Of course, I was not a very happy Christian during that time. And I couldn't have been a very good example of one to others either. Critical and judgmental attitudes like that, or murmuring, being unthankful, and complaining hinder our relationship with God and our representation of what a Christian is.

But eventually, I began to get this nagging, uneasy feeling every time I would say something negative about the pastor...or anyone else for that matter. I could feel that what I was saying was wrong, and I knew in my heart it was the Holy Spirit telling me it was time to grow up and mature spiritually.

I've come to the point in my relationship with God where it doesn't take long for me to be aware when I say or do something that is not pleasing to God. And this is what He wants for all His children: to develop sensitivity and obedience to His voice as He leads each of our lives. Romans 8:14 (AMPC) declares that "all who are led by the Spirit of God are the sons of God." This term "sons" indicates a level of maturity and intimacy in our relationship with Him.

God is not looking for spiritual robots; He doesn't want us all just following a bunch of rules for the sake of obedience. Jesus made a way, through His perfect sacrifice, for our sins to be completely washed away and removed from us so we can have a personal relationship with God. We are free to obey Him simply because we love Him, and we know that everything He tells us to do, or not do, is for our good. We just need to learn to follow His lead.

It's actually exciting to follow the Holy Spirit, and He wants to lead us all according to the plans God has for each of our lives. I'm not saying it will always be easy. King David was called a man after God's heart, but we know it wasn't because he did everything right. However, David had cultivated a passionate heart for God's will. He learned how to recover from his failures and move on in God, and because of that "God testified concerning him: 'I have found David son of Jesse, a man after my own heart; he will do everything I want him to do'" (Acts 13:22 NIV).

In our relationship with God, our part is to pray, study His Word, and learn to develop our own sensitivity and obedience to the Holy Spirit's lead. His promise to us is, "I will give them one heart [a new heart] and I will put a new spirit within them; and I will take the stony [unnaturally hardened] heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh [sensitive and responsive to the touch of their God]" (Ezekiel 11:19 AMPC).

Trust the Holy Spirit and follow His lead. You'll discover His way is the best, most exciting journey you can find!

INTERVIEW WITH JERRY SAVELLE

TAKING PEOPLE INTO BEING A “WINNER IN LIFE” IS NO EASY TASK. IS THE CONCEPT ‘WINNING’ THE SAME FOR EACH PERSON?

Obviously different groups are different based on their background, how they were raised and brought up and the mind state they develop. What I teach them is no different (as it is) based on the word of God. I believe God has created each and every one to be a winner in life and it takes His word to become that. When I say my mandate is to talk people into winning that is exactly what it takes. A lot of people you literally have to talk them into. (This is) because (of) their upbringing, thought patterns, habits (and) negative thinking.

ONCE HAVING CONVERTED SOMEONE INTO A WINNING PERSON’, HOW DOES THIS PERSON KEEP THEMSELVES IN THAT MINDSET?

We encourage them to practice a biblical principle called ‘increase by association’. That simply means that who you associate with has everything to do with you destiny (and) how your life turns out. We encourage them to associate with other people who have a winning attitude, continually read and study and apply material that teaches them how to win – faith-building books and CDs. (Also to) get into a church where they are taught how to win maintain that winning attitude.

You get around a group of people who have a ‘loser mentality’ and if you are not stronger than them they will pull you down. So you’ve got to be around people who think (and) talk that way. You know, the apostle Paul talked about (it) in Philippians (when) he said that (those believers) had entered into an association or a partnership with him from the (beginning) up to the time he wrote the letter to them. (Then) he said ‘you are now partakers of my grace’. So through their association (the) winner’s attitude that was on him (also) came on them! Association has everything to do with destiny.

HOW TO YOU REVIVE THE PEOPLE THAT HAVE ‘FALLEN’ AND STRUGGLE TO GET UP AGAIN? HOW DO YOU MANAGE TO GET THEM BACK TO THE WINNING ATTITUDE’?

Well, obviously it takes compassion. I believe if a person has the heart of God they are (also) lovers of people. It breaks my heart to see people who have not tapped into their full potential. It grieves my spirit to see them giving up when I know they have the potential of being a winner. (One) just has to deal with them with a lot of compassion. It’s not sympathy. Sympathy and compassion are two different things. Sympathy looks at a person and says, “I feel so badly for you and wish there was something I could do”. But compassion says there is something we can do. Paul talked about it in one of his letters to Timothy about being nourished by the word of faith.

The best thing I can do for a person who’s trying to be a winner but keeps falling flat is to reach out to them in love, encourage them (so) that they can make it and don’t give up. (They have to) determine that quitting is not an option and then (invest) into their lives as much faith-building, inspirational (and) motivational material as they possibly can.

If you can teach a person to get to the place where the word of God has first place and final authority, then they can get to the place where they can develop this attitude of ‘none of these things move me’ (Acts 20). But it takes compassion and a continual feeding of the word of God until they are back up on their feet again.

BEYOND ADVENTURE

GAP YEAR OF YOUR LIFE

FULL & HALF YEAR OPTIONS

NOW AVAILABLE !

JANUARY - JUNE 2018 | JULY - NOVEMBER 2018

THE CONCEPT OF 'EXTREME EDUCATION' WAS DESIGNED TO PROVIDE A CHALLENGING ENVIRONMENT FOR YOUNG PEOPLE TO DISCOVER AND DEVELOP THEIR LEADERSHIP POTENTIAL

What makes your programme extreme and adventurous?

We offer students a wide range of extreme activities to participate in such as: sky diving, bungee jumping, scuba diving, mountain biking, abseiling, kayaking etc.

What is the value of a gap year programme?

A gap year gives young people time to reflect on what they think would be the college/varsity or career choice best suited to their needs. It allows them to clarify their interests and become aware of their strengths and weaknesses.

We also believe a gap year allows them to take advantage of learning that takes place outside the classroom and apply these skills in real life situations, within a protected environment. It is imperative that youths experience life in communities different from those in which they have been living and our extreme gap year programme offers them this experience. We further believe that gap years allow students to learn about a variety of careers before making a critical decision and to gain maturity, initiative and resourcefulness, all valuable life skills.

What outcome do you hope is achieved in every student's life once completing your programme?

Our programme is designed to meet, challenge and grow the complete individual, body, soul and spirit, as we train tomorrow's leaders today. Our desire is for the young person to have fun and 'discover themselves' as they are developed into a person with vision and purpose. We endeavour to take boys and girls and to mould them into young men and women that will have a positive influence on our society and the world.

Describe how the programme works - when is your intake, how long does it last and how much does it cost?

The Beyond Adventure Extreme Leadership Gap Year Programme was launched in 2001. We are located 100 kilometres north east of Port Elizabeth in Alicedale. We are situated close to some of the great game reserves such as Addo Elephant Park and Shamwari. Our programme runs from the last week in January till the middle of November. The students are accommodated in rooms where they will learn to live with three other students. Cost enquires and further info can be obtained from our offices as well as our website www.beyondadventure.co.za, under the download section.

What makes your programme unique as opposed to other Gap year courses?

We believe the Beyond Adventure concept to be unique in South Africa. The concept of 'Extreme Education' was designed to provide a challenging environment for young people to discover and develop their leadership potential. Leadership deals with direction, vision, purpose and principles and our leadership programme focuses on building the students up, making them aware of other cultures, helping them with emotional bank account building and strengthening them as individuals functioning in a group context.

Most importantly, we run a programme that is founded on Biblical principles with Jesus Christ as the foundation stone.

THEY TOUCHED HIM AND WERE MADE WELL

Angus Buchan

In the Gospel of Matthew 14:34-36, we see that the people of Gennesaret recognized Jesus, when He crossed over the Sea of Galilee. They went all over that region and collected up people that were sick. Then they went to Jesus and begged Him that they could just touch the very hem of His garment, and as they touched His Garment The Bible says they were made perfectly well.

We see the exact same story happening in Mark 5:24-34, where the woman with the issue of blood had been bleeding for 12 years. She had spent all her money and had nothing left. She said to herself, “If I could just touch the hem of his garment, I will be made well.” She pushed through the crowd, undeterred by people pushing her from every side and eventually got to the Lord Jesus Christ. She then touched the hem of His garment and the issue of blood dried up immediately. Jesus stopped in His tracks and even though people had been pushing Him from all over, He said to His disciples “Who touched Me?” His disciples said, “Lord people are pushing You from all over.” The Lord said, “No there is one particular person.” Of course, the little lady’s face must have been red with embarrassment and said, “It was me, Lord.” He said to the woman, “Go in peace, your faith has made you well.”

On the other side of the coin, we see when Jesus went back to Nazareth He could perform very few miracles, because of the lack of faith in His own hometown. Matthew 13:53-58, “... Now He did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.” We know that it is the power of God that heals, but Jesus makes it very clear that we need to have a measure of faith in order for the Lord to perform His miracles in our lives. By faith we cry out to God like Peter did, when he was in the boat and then through obedience he got out of the boat and walked on the water. When we take our eyes off the Lord for a moment and we look at the waves, we will start to sink, but if we call out, He will be quick to take a hold of us and restore us. Faith really honors God and Jesus is so happy with us when we walk by faith and not by sight (2 Corinthians 5:7).

I really want to encourage you to extend your faith and of course we all know where it comes from. Romans 10:17 (NKJV) clearly states, “So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.” We need to spend more time reading God’s Word, and spending time with men and women of great faith, because faith is definitely contagious. Can you imagine how the other people roundabout felt when they saw the sick merely touching the hem of the Masters garment and were completely healed from paralysis, from blindness, delivered from demons and set free? We have always said at Shalom “One genuine miracle equals a thousand sermons.” That is the absolute truth.

Give Jesus your two fishes and your five barley loaves of bread, and He will multiply them to feed thousands of others. We have actually seen it happen tangibly in front of our eyes here at Shalom during the Mighty Men Conference which took place in 2007.

Operating by faith, also pleases our Heavily Father, because it shows Him how much we trust His Son.

The Bible tells a story of a centurion who was not even a Jew, but a Gentile (a foreigner) and furthermore an officer in the Roman army, which was oppressing Israel at that time, and the least qualified candidate to receive the gift from Jesus. But because of his faith, which Jesus had never seen in all of Israel, said to the Master, “You don’t even have to come to my house, just say the Word and my servant will be healed.” We read that at that very hour his servant was completely restored back at the centurion’s house.

My dear friend, let us trust God and continually walk with expectation in Jesus alone. Psalm 62:5 (NKJV), “My soul, wait silently for God alone, for my expectation is from Him.”

God bless,
Angus Buchan

CULTURE REVOLUTION

TWO CRITICAL SKILLS YOU NEED IN 2018

In the book “Extreme: Why Some People Thrive at the Limits,” writers Emma Barrett and Paul Martin explore what makes thrill seekers get such a rush from being out on the edge. “Brain imaging studies,” they write “have found that risk seeking behaviour is preceded by activity in the region of the brain associated with the anticipation of pleasurable experiences like sex, drug taking, and monetary gain.” In other words, situations that would be terrifying to us, are pleasurable to them. As a result, they don’t understand the kind of fear, insecurity, and intimidation most of us experience. The book is filled with stories of people who have gone beyond what we normally think human beings are capable of, but in their list of attributes of thrill seekers, two things stood out:

1 Resilience

2 Single Mindedness

The biggest reason people who most people would call crazy are still alive is that far from being impulsive or easy to panic, they are actually control freaks. The writers list many of the keys to their success, including planning and preparation (rehearsing for catastrophe), experience, and methodical thinking. They’re not really risk TAKERS, they’re risk AVOIDERS. They are able to do amazing things because they don’t take anything for granted.

But the two most important traits were resilience and single mindedness.

Think about that in your career. How resilient are you? How many set-backs can you take before you give up? How much criticism can you handle before you wilt under pressure? And when it comes to single mindedness, how focused are you? Are you trying to accomplish too many things or are you zeroed in on your One Big Thing?

Take a few minutes today and reflect about your own resilience and single mindedness.

The truth is, in case after case, people who accomplish great things – from inventors to artists to entrepreneurs to politicians to leaders of all kinds – have those two things in common.

BE CAREFUL OF PEOPLE WHO CONSTANTLY COMPLAIN ABOUT THEIR JOB

Work is hard. It’s hard for me, it’s hard for you, and pretty much everybody else. So when I encounter someone who’s constantly complaining about their job, how difficult life is, or how busy they are, I tend to start ignoring them. It’s not that I’m a jerk, it’s that I find far too many people who try to impress us with how many balls they’re juggling, how difficult their job is, and how their schedule is just crammed too full. Novelist Richard Ford said something similar about writers:

“Beware of writers who tell you how hard they work. (Beware of anybody who tries to tell you that.) Writing is indeed often dark and lonely, but no one really has to do it. Yes, writing can be complicated, exhausting, isolating, abstracting, boring, dulling, briefly exhilarating; it can be made to be gruelling and demoralizing. And occasionally it can produce rewards. But it’s never as hard as, say, piloting an L-1011 into O’Hare on a snowy night in January, or doing brain surgery when you have to stand up for 10 hours straight, and once you start you can’t just stop. If you’re a writer, you can stop anywhere, any time, and no one will care or ever know. Plus, the results might be better if you do.”

The same goes for most jobs (except maybe a L-1011 pilot on a snowy night in January or a brain surgeon). A few years ago I got frustrated with traveling all the time, and started complaining to everyone about my intense travel schedule. Then I realized two things:

1. I get to do this. I get to travel around the globe, see amazing things, work with remarkable people, and advise some of the most talented leaders in the world. Certainly, air travel, hotels, and constant time zone changes can be a pain, but what a privilege.

2. I chose this. This is my life. I could stop any time and become a salesman, teach in college, join a church or ministry full-time, or get some other job with relatively normal hours and little or no travel. So, it's time to put up or shut up.

Ever since that realization, I've stopped complaining and started embracing my job, my travel schedule, and my life. And guess what? People are grateful that I'm not complaining anymore. We all have it hard. We don't need to impress each other with the difficulty of our job. Besides, if you really want to impress them, inspire them. That will make a real difference.

THE MORALITY POLICE ARE EVERYWHERE

And they're looking for you...

I find it interesting that so many people who reject Christianity because of its "morals," become moralizers themselves – just in a different direction. From the students and faculty on college campuses who trying to shut down free speech in the name of "protecting feelings," to the posturing of the pro-abortion crowd, to the transgender issue, and much more.

As many Christian apologists have stated over the years, "Everyone has a worldview." Just because someone rejects one set of morals, doesn't mean they actually live in a moral-free universe. That would pretty much be impossible. The problem is, these new self-appointed morality cops can get absolutely hysterical about an issue and go straight to attack mode – as many who have posted controversial thoughts on social media can attest.

So the minute you espouse views that are outside current politically correct doctrine, and someone attacks you for "moralizing," just remember they're being hypocritical.

Principles matter. The question becomes, which set of morals will lead to a better world, and which set leads to disaster?

DEALING WITH THE CHRONICALLY OFFENDED

I know a guy in the Midwest who is offended by everything. Whatever someone does for him he's upset that it wasn't something better. He's out of a job right now, and wears it on his sleeve. Talks about it obsessively, and is upset everyone else has a job. You naturally want to help people in need, but some people just won't stop complaining – no matter what you do. We get a group together to go out to eat, and he rips us because he doesn't have any money. We invite him to a movie and he's mad because he's not "rich." All he talks about is how life isn't fair. But the truth is, he's made a lot of poor decisions that have landed him in this exact spot. Plus, the jerky attitude doesn't help.

You may know someone like that in your office or family. You hate being around him because he simply makes life miserable for everyone. I'm not a psychologist, but I can tell you this – he's not mad at you, he's mad at himself. Every time he sees you, he's looking into a mirror and seeing his own shortcomings. So stop apologizing just to be nice. Be honest. Don't be critical, but don't be a doormat either. That just enables more bad behavior. Instead, here's some things he or she should re-focus on:

First of all, "poor" is a state of mind as much as a financial condition. Broadcasting that you're out of a job, and being mad at others who have one doesn't fix it – it just drives away the very people who could help.

Second – be gracious. Always be gracious. It's not everyone else's fault that you're struggling. Plus, lighten up and you'll be amazed at the number of people who'll want to help.

Last – change your attitude. Placing the blame everywhere else won't solve the problem. It doesn't matter whether it's your fault or not – you're the only one who can make change happen. Own it. Man up. Once people see that attitude change, they'll be lining up to help....

Lastly, if you know a chronic complainer that won't stop, then stop paying them attention. After being stung by a vicious attack by a member of Parliament, Winston Churchill was asked why he didn't respond. He replied: "If I respected him, I would care about his opinion, but I don't, so I won't."

Even when it's a family member, there comes a time when responding only enables their bad behavior. Know when to ignore it and move on. Do you have a chronic complainer in your life?

GOOD NEWS
REND COLLECTIVE
- MUSIC -

Featuring the joy, hope and attitude of celebration that fans have come to expect, Rend Collective brings us their 6th studio album, Good News. "In the middle of such devastatingly bad news, we don't want to just sing Good News, but follow the example of Jesus and actually BE Good News to hurting people," says band member Gareth Gilkeson. The album is full of worship anthems that explore the depths of grace and the power of reconciliation in salvation.

PSALM 23
LOUIE GIGLIO
- SERMON DVD -

You've probably heard these treasured words before. Psalm 23 is one of the best-known, most often-quoted passages in Scripture. And, there's a beautiful reason why. In this five-week journey through the 23rd Psalm, Pastor Louie Giglio and Passion City Church lead us through the promises of the Good Shepherd, who commits to guide, restore, comfort and provide for us - for all of our days, in every season.

RECKLESS LOVE
CORY ASBURY (BETHEL)
- MUSIC -

Cory Asbury is a worship leader, songwriter and pastor who joined the Bethel Music Collective in May of 2015. Cory's third, highly-anticipated solo album, Reckless Love will release January 2018. The album's title track released in October and is rapidly becoming a worship anthem sung in churches around the world. His previous solo albums, Holy and Let Me See Your Eyes, include well-known songs "Where I Belong", "So Good to Me", "Always Faithful" and "Jesus, Let Me See Your Eyes". Cory is featured on Bethel Music's Have It All album with his song "Son of God", as well as numerous IHOP-KC compilation albums.

INTO THE NIGHT
SOCIAL CLUB MISFITS
- MUSIC -

Social Club Misfits is back with their brand new studio album INTO THE NIGHT. With 13 tracks, and several special features from artists such as Danny Gokey, Jordin Sparks and Tauren Wells, INTO THE NIGHT picks up right where the hip-hop duo's last release, The Misadventures of Fern and Marty, left off. Fans can expect the innovative beats and witty rhymes that the Misfits have become known for, on tracks like "Lucky," "Dive," and pop-anthem "War Cry," but they can also expect to hear some exciting new sounds as the band explores more of their Latin heritage for the first time in "Tuyo" and "Solo." Marty and Fern share, "We wanted to make an album that really embodied who we are and what we believe in. This album is about being a light no matter where you are in life. We approached every song with this idea to challenge the stereotypes of what a "Christian artist" is supposed to be." The result is the genre-hopping, high energy, album: INTO THE NIGHT.

THE HIGHER EXPERIENCE
KELONTAE GAVIN
- MUSIC -

In 2013, at the mere age of 14, Kelontae Gavin was videotaped in a high school cafeteria singing "I Won't Complain.". His performance went viral and a million views later, he is now one of the most buzzed about new voices in Gospel music! This young phenom possesses the stage presence and vocal finesse of an artist twice his age. THE HIGHER EXPERIENCE not only showcases his passionate faith and vast vocal range, but also his preacher-like oratorical skills. This riveting recording boasts an exciting blend of the Pop pageantry of Hillsong United coupled with the fiery Pentecostal fervor of a take-no-prisoners band. Destined to be a huge hit, "No Ordinary Worship" was one of Billboard's most added songs in its first week at Gospel Radio, and it will soon be the calling card of KELONTAE GAVIN. This debut album also contains many other standout tracks, which will definitely provide listeners with THE HIGHER EXPERIENCE they've been craving!

And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither. And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him. And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.
