FROM THE EDITOR

There is a great word in the English language, that when practically implemented, make for an extremely civilized society. That word is of course "sportsmanship." Now, sportsmanship really speaks of an attitude we display to our fellowmen (and for those among our readers who are very PC minded, fellowmen includes ladies as well). We've all heard the oh-so-British expression (and hear it with the Queen's accent), "Be a sport, old boy!"

But more than this, sportsmanship speaks about the respect we have and display for one another, whether on the sports field or off. Good sportsmanship speaks about our consideration for those who occupy our space, and also for the space we occupy of others.

The origin of the word (I assume) would have been from the sports arena where, even in a highly charged and competitive surrounding, one could accept defeat with a certain amount of grace. Recently, with the World Cup held in South Africa, we had great examples of both good sportsmanship as well as poor displays of attitude and behaviour. I also think that as parents (and as teachers of our future leaders) we have a tremendous responsibility towards training our children in the art of sportsmanship. Sportsmanship, like charity, starts at home! But sportsmanship extends into all arenas of life, doesn't it? Would you not consider it good sportsmanship when people obey the rules of the road, stopping at a red traffic light for example! Gentleman standing up when a lady enters a room, a guy standing back to allow a lady first entrance into a room (Western culture), or a guy walking into a room first to make sure the lady following him will be safe (African cultures).

And then, of course, I think good or poor sportsmanship extends even into the spiritual realm; I equate sportsmanship with attitude, so the extent to which you approach life will yield the desired results. Spiritually speaking our lives can either be ruled by fear or by faith – there is no middle ground in life. When we are ruled by fear, our attitudes will tend to display the negativity and poor sportsmanship (rudeness, impatience, anger) will result. However, the flipside is when we approach life with a positive attitude that is based in faith. Now faith for me is a two-way street; it is firstly the faith we have in God and ourselves to accomplish things, and secondly (and equally important) the faith that God has in us! God's faith in us should be a motivating factor for a good attitude, after all, He entrusted us with the message of hope and love to give to a world lost in fear and insecurity.

So the next time we find ourselves in a situation where we are tempted to display poor sportsmanship, perhaps it would do us well to remember that our real task on earth is to support, encourage and build up the people around us with a positive and love-filled message of hope.

THE SENSE OF PURPOSE

ANDRÉ & JENNY ROEBERT

“But as for that (seed) in the good soil, these are (the people) who, hearing the Word, hold it fast in a just (noble, virtuous) and worthy heart, and steadily bring forth fruit with patience” (Luke 8:15 AMP).

Bearing Fruit! The fruit that is produced in us, is proof of our intimacy with the Lord. That’s why fruitfulness can only come once we have a true sense of belonging in the Lord! When we love Him, we naturally obey Him and follow in His ways. Every time we gain more knowledge about God and His ways, while spending time with Him, and that truth takes root, and becomes alive in us, that truth begins to blossom and grow into our very nature and we bear its fruit! It’s not fruit if it doesn’t flow out of a place of abiding love! Without that, it’s just dead works, and will have no eternal significance.

I read a phrase from a book that spoke about the intimate relationship between Christ and His bride, the church. It was a phrase the author felt the Lord had spoken in her spirit, concerning true fruitfulness. The book relates true fruitfulness as being the result of our intimacy with the Lord, as His Word is made alive in our hearts. It also gives the opinion that true fruitfulness is not the good works, that are produced in our lives out of obligation. The phrase goes, “Many are willing to work in my field, but they neglect our garden.” So many Christians keep themselves so busy doing things for the Lord, out of their own strength and sense of obligation, instead of making their intimate time with the Lord and His Word their priority. It’s in our time of intimacy with the Lord that He causes our thoughts, dreams and visions to conform to His own. When He places those dreams and ideas inside of us, we can be assured that all the resources, provision, strength and wisdom to accomplish them has already been supplied by Him. If our ideas and good works were not a result from His whispering into our hearts, they will become burdensome and will not produce any eternal significance. They become dead works.

Renewing our minds to the Word of God is not a retreat from our problems or an escape from reality! It’s choosing to place ourselves in a state of mind where we perceive our circumstance as God does, and respond to them from a perspective of faith and victory, rather than hopelessness and defeat. It’s being aware of the supernatural BLESSING we have received from being in Him, more than being aware of the limited, natural circumstances that surround us. This is how we develop the skill of having the BLESSING dominate our souls, which ultimately influences every area of our lives. The BLESSING will influence the way we reason and perceive circumstances, it will exercise control over our emotions and effect every decision we make. ■

THE ABSOLUTELY AMAZING REST OF GOD!

JOYCE MEYER

God wants us to enjoy our everyday lives. John 10:10 says that Jesus died for us so we “may have and enjoy life, and have it in abundance (to the full, till it overflows)” (AMP). But it seems so many people who say they believe in Jesus are not really enjoying their lives. It’s tragic to think that Jesus paid the price for our sins, that He suffered to make that sacrifice, and yet there are Christians who are struggling just to get by and make it through each day.

The key to having abundant life in Christ is living by God’s grace through faith. Because grace is His power working in us that enables us to do whatever we need to do in life.

When we try to do everything in our own strength and leave God out of the equation, we just get worn-out and frustrated by our mistakes and failures. But when we lean on God, we actually enter into His rest and can enjoy our lives, no matter what our circumstances may be.

Hebrews 4:9-11 (AMP) says, “So there remains a (full and complete) Sabbath rest for the people of God. For the one who has once entered His rest has also rested from (the weariness and pain of) his human labors.... Let us therefore make every effort to enter that rest (of God, to know and experience it for ourselves)....”

Now the rest of God is not a rest from work—it’s a rest in work. It’s partnering with God to do what He is calling you to do by His grace, and leaving the part you can’t do in His hands, trusting Him to do it. Hebrews 4:3 says it this way: “For we who believe (that is, we who personally trust and confidently rely on God) enter that rest....” So we start by believing.

When I’m trying to believe, I haven’t entered God’s rest. But when I do believe, I have complete rest in Him. Living by faith is not a life of struggle—it’s rest. And you can enter into God’s rest in every area of your life.

I’ve discovered that the stress in my life is caused by the way I approach my circumstances and the attitude I have toward them. It was a turning point for me when I realized that the world will probably never change, but I can learn how to change the way I go about handling situations that are challenging.

One key to this is knowing that as believers in Christ, we are partners with God—we have a part and He has a part in everything He calls us to do. When we don't do the part we can do and we try to do His part, that's when we live stressed-out with worry, fear, anxiety, frustration, no peace and no joy.

The reason this happens sometimes is because we think God needs our help. We meditate on the problem—rolling it over and over in our mind, worrying, trying to figure out how things should work out. It's like we're telling God, "I kind of think You need my help, and I'm not sure You can take care of this situation, Lord."

We need to realize that worrying is useless! It's like sitting in a rocking chair, rocking all day, wearing yourself out and getting nowhere. Trusting God means we give up worrying, reasoning, and anxiety and we enter into His rest with simple childlike faith—we live by grace through faith!

Ephesians 2:8-9 is a great scripture that says we're saved by grace through faith. And we walk out our relationship with God and His plans for our lives the same way we receive salvation: by grace through faith.

This is possible because Jesus made the perfect sacrifice for us when He gave His life, taking our guilt and condemnation and paying for our sins. Through a personal relationship with Jesus, we access God's grace so we can do what He's calling us to do.

It's so amazing to know that God is always with us, giving us His grace for everything we need to do in life. Trust God's unconditional love for you today. Do what you can do and give Him everything else. And when you find yourself getting frustrated or feeling overwhelmed, like you just can't do it anymore, remember to stop, get your focus back on Him and enter into His rest once again.

A gap year gives young people time to reflect on what they think would be the college/varsity or career choice best suited to their needs.

What makes your programme extreme and adventurous?

We offer students a wide range of extreme activities to participate in such as: scuba diving, mountain biking, abseiling, kayaking, paint ball, 4x4 off-road driving, etc.

What is the value of a gap year programme?

A gap year gives young people time to reflect on what they think would be the college/varsity or career choice best suited to their needs. It allows them to clarify their interests and become aware of their strengths and weaknesses.

We also believe a gap year allows them to take advantage of learning that takes place outside the classroom and apply these skills in real life situations, within a protected environment. It is imperative that youths experience life in communities different from those in which they have been living and our extreme gap year programme offers them this experience. We further believe that gap years allow students to learn about a variety of careers before making a critical decision and to gain maturity, initiative and resourcefulness, all valuable life skills.

What outcome do you hope is achieved in every student's life once completing your programme?

Our programme is designed to meet, challenge and grow the complete individual, body, soul and spirit, as we train tomorrow's leaders today. Our desire is for the young person to have fun and 'discover themselves' as they are developed into a person with vision and purpose. We endeavour to take boys and girls and to mould them into young men and women that will have a positive influence on our society and the world.

Describe how the programme works - when is your intake, how long does it last and how much does it cost?

The Beyond Adventure Extreme Leadership Gap Year Programme was launched in 2001. We are located 100 kilometres north east of Port Elizabeth in Alicedale. We are situated close to some of the great game reserves such as Addo Elephant Park and Shamwari.

Our programme runs from mid January till the first week of December.

The students are accommodated in rooms where they will learn to live with three other students.

Cost enquires and further info can be obtained from our offices as well as our website.

What makes your programme unique as opposed to other Gap year courses?

We believe the Beyond Adventure concept to be unique in South Africa. The concept of 'Extreme Education' was designed to provide a challenging environment for young people to discover and develop their leadership potential. Leadership deals with direction, vision, purpose and principles and our leadership programme focuses on building the students up, making them aware of other cultures, helping them with emotional bank account building and strengthening them as individuals functioning in a group context.

Most importantly, we run a programme that is founded on Biblical principles with Jesus Christ as the foundation stone.

THE GOSPEL IN PURITY AND SIMPLICITY

ANGUS BUCHAN

I read a beautiful article by a wonderful preacher regarded by the Baptists, as the prince of preachers, Charles Haddon Spurgeon and he spoke about the simplicity of preaching The Word of God. If ever we needed to get back to basics, it is in this day and age. It's not Jesus plus, it's Jesus only!

He says, "To try and win a soul to Christ by keeping that soul in ignorance of any truth, is contrary to the mind of the spirit; and to endeavor to save men by mere claptrap, or excitement, or preaching display, is as foolish as to hope to hold an angel with a bird-lime, or lure a star with music." We've got to get back to the old- old Gospel.

How often do we hear a message preached, for example from John 3:3 (NKJV), "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." or verse 7, "You must be born again." Was it not Nicodemus, the member of the Sanhedrin and one of the most powerful man in Israel who came to our Lord Jesus Christ by night and asked Him what he should do to inherit eternal life.

Nicodemus said "Rabbi, we know that You are a teacher come from God; for no one can do these signs that You do unless God is with him." Of course, Jesus answered, "You have got to be born-again (make a clean start)."

We can no longer serve two masters. Matthew 12:30 says, "He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters abroad." If we are going to experience a change in our lives, then we need to make a new start and people need to know that, like never before. There has got to be a difference in one's life. You cannot say, "because my parents and grandparents were Christians than I automatically qualify too." As the old saying goes "There are no grandchildren in Heaven." Each and every one of us has got to meet Jesus for Himself.

The change I am talking about, is what happened to Saul of Tarsus who was on his way to Damascus to persecute and kill the Christians, only to be knocked off his horse and to be converted instantaneously, from being a murderer of the believer to becoming an agent of Jesus Christ. He was used mightily by the Lord to save souls.

While the disciples were fishing for food they met the Carpenter from Nazareth, the Son of God and got changed instantly into 'fishers of souls.' There has got to be a change! Zacchaeus, the rich publican was one moment extorting people, especially the poor and making himself extremely rich, and then the next moment he was giving half of his goods to the poor and restoring 400% of anything taken by false accusations.

Mary Magdalen a woman who seven demons were cast out of by Jesus Christ, turned her life around and became His most ardent, passionate and devoted follower right up to the cross, when even the disciples ran away, she remained faithful - a complete turnaround. That is why John Newton could write that beautiful hymn "Amazing Grace." He was the captain of a slave ship and I cannot think of a worse profession possible. Yet he said, "I once was lost, but now I am found. I was blind, but now I see." There has got to be a change.

I think of my own life, as a young boy who couldn't speak to more than two people, who ran away when he saw a girl and just a few months ago had the privilege of speaking to over one million people, and praying the sinner's prayer with them. Surely it was only God, for with man these things are totally impossible.

How do we see the results of a life changed? While quite simply, by the fruit of the Spirit. We have got to see love, joy, peace, long-suffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control (Galatians 5:22-23) taking place in a new believer. When people find such a gem, or pearl, as salvation they cannot possibly keep it to themselves, and that's all revival really is: - "a people saturated with God."

God bless
Angus Buchan 🇬🇧

JUROLUMBA

From homeless to a multi-award winning artist, empowerment speaker and philanthropist.

JuroLumba was once an occultist and alcoholic, but everything changed when he had a life-changing encounter with God. This encounter came after a season of being homeless, which incidentally, was also the inspiration for songs such as God is in Control. In short, the 'fast life' was exchanged for ministry, feeding the homeless in Cape Town, and giving away blankets to the poor.

His love of music (hip-hop) became a vehicle to promote the kingdom of God, and to minister to a generation often left on the sidelines in the Church. He noticed that some young people (and many adults) weren't interested in attending Church because they felt 'left out', misunderstood, and seemingly forced to serve God according to traditions and people's personal taste. Juro faced some opposition from those who did not welcome rap as a legitimate genre or medium of worship and outreach.

In the midst of all this confusion and opposition, Ambassador J Loemba (his stage name) decided to stop performing rap in order to solely focus on preaching; however, whenever he prayed about it, the Lord reminded him that He is the one who gave him this talent! He asked the Lord for a sign, and after a while he was invited to minister in song in a very conservative Church and was surprised to see old men and women (from 60 and up) praising God to rap, almost with more energy than young people who were equally as shocked as he was.

After the event, a kid came to him and told him that he always wanted to be like 2Pac but after hearing him, he decided to use his talent for God and rap about things that edify people; after encouraging and praying for the kid a group of elderly women approached him to tell him that they loved his music and that the Lord has placed a special anointing upon him and that he will be mightily used by God to reach lives around the world.

A while later, the Grammy Award winning Artist Donnie McClurkin prayed for Juro during his African Tour; Donnie also prophesied exactly the same things Ambassador J Loemba has been receiving through visions, as well as from other ministers. Donnie McClurkin also inspired him to combine his preaching and music ministry in order to reach different groups of people in and outside of the Church.

After seeing and hearing many more similar encouraging testimonies and prophesies, Ambassador J Loemba decided to record his first album but he quickly faced another obstacle - he couldn't get a record deal because the Hip Hop Gospel Genre was still new and not well received in the Christian Community. Jurowas inspired by God, while praying, to start his own record label that was subsequently named Christ Impact Records. Even though many people (including Christians) never thought that anything good would come out of this initiative, today by the grace of God he is a multi-award winning artist. He was recently nominated in UK in the Best International Artist Category along Grammy/ Dove /Stellar Awards with winners such as Donnie McClurkin, Andy Mineo, Israel Houghton, and Deitrick Haddon. In South Africa he has (together with CMMM) won the SABC Crown Gospel Music Awards 2016 "Best Music Video of the Year" for a song and music video he wrote and co-directed titled God of Miracles.

Because Ambassador J Loemba chose to obey God, despite the opposition and lack of support, his Record label "Christ Impact Records" is one of the most successful Urban Christian Records Label in Africa today, with his music featured on mainstream TV Channels and most major Gospel Media Platforms from Africa, Europe, to the USA. Through his music ministry lives have been transformed; he has seen people healed, the dead raised back to life and hardcore gangsters changed while in prison while listening to his music and testimony.

When asked how he would like to be known and remembered, Ambassador J Loemba said "I want my life to reconcile men and women around the world to the reality of God, and demonstrating that nothing is impossible with God."

OCTOBER 2017

HIGHLIGHTS

one vision one purpose

The Prodigal

The parable comes to life in this five-time award-winner! The American dream becomes a nightmare when the Stuart family drifts apart. Son Greg's return home only widens the gap. It's time to find a foundation.

OCTOBER 01 @ 8PM

Home Group Rick Renner

The TV ministry of RENNER Ministries has been proclaiming the Gospel throughout the former Soviet Union. Program topics address a wide variety of common concerns: improving marriage and family relationships, parenting effectively, dealing with depression, protecting children from substance abuse, and motivating youth to pursue their dreams and goals.

WEDNESDAY @ 6:30PM

The Word for Living David Shearin

"The Word For Living" is a faith based television program that broadcasts locally, regionally, and nationally. Pastor David Shearin's unique, commonsense approach to Faith and the Bible will help both the believer and seeker to understand their identity, authority, and power they have "In Christ".

SUNDAY @ 5PM

TruNews

TRU NEWS is the world's leading news source that reports, analyzes, and comments on global events and trends with a conservative, orthodox Christian worldview. Our vision is to build a global news network that provides a credible source for world news, events, and trends while giving respect and honor to Christians of all major denominations.

STARTS OCT 16 @ 9:30PM

Transformation Now! Ed Silvano

Ed Silvano is an author, documentarian, and founder of both Harvest Evangelism and the International Transformation Network, the objective of which is to end worldwide systemic poverty. Ed & Ruth tell about the roots of their ministry. Ed was diagnosed with an incurable disease and given two years to live.

TUE & THUR @ 9:30AM

Scars That Heal

Gripping true story about rebuilding a life following a hand grenade accident in Vietnam. Dave uses humor and emotion to minister to the pain in us all.

ABOUT RBI AFRICA

3 YEAR FULL TIME TRAINING PROGRAM designed for those who desire to step into their full time calling into the fivefold ministry.

Accredited through Transworld Accrediting Comissions.

2 Timothy 2:15, "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of truth."

This is why River Bible Institute exists. We desire to see believers rooted and build up into Christ, and established in the faith. We believe in the absolute sufficiency of Christ and His Word, and we believe that God's Word should be studied and learned so that the believer can be thoroughly furnished unto all good works. Adding to this that the Holy Spirit came down with fire in the second chapter of Acts, we realised that Word without fire will become religion.

Our desire is to teach believers how to study God's Word and rightly divide it according to the revelation but to operate under the fire and unction of the Holy Spirit.

THE DEAD SEA COMIC

This is David's home village.

1. Follow the path around it and put together the memory verse.
2. See how well you can colour in the picture.
3. How many soldiers can you see, and how many windows?
4. One of the sheep has got away. Can you find it?
